Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, TO TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1812.

By his Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the calling of another.

GEORGE, P. R.

Whereas we, acting in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, think fit, by and with the advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Friday the second day of October next; we do therefore, acting as foresaid, publish this Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their meeting and attendance on the said Friday the second day of October next: And we being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet his Majesty's people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all his Majesty's loving subjects our will and pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, that, with the advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, we have this day given order that the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and the Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out writs, in due form and according to law, for calling a new Parliament: And we do hereby also, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, by this Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by the said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their attendance in, the said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the 24th day of November next.

Given at the Court at Carleton-House, the twenty-ninth day of September 1812, and in the fifty-second year of his Majesty's reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

By his Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE, P. R.

Whereas we have, acting in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, by and with the advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to declare our pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of November next ensuing the date hereof: In order therefore to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament: We do, acting as aforesaid, by the advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Friday the thirteenth day of November next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the house of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent, (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law). And the Law Clerk Register, or such two of the principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: And we do, by this Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof during the time of the said election, and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever. And we strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the market-cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, 25 days at least before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness George Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, at Westminster, the 29th day of September 1812, in the 52d year of his Majesty's reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

ling.

WILLIAM M'KINLAY, Writer in Stirling, hereby intimates, that he is chosen Trustee upon the said John Thomson's estate; and his appointment having been confirmed by the Lord Ordinary officiating on the bills, the Sheriff-substitute of Stirlingshire has fixed Monday the 19th day of October current, and Monday the 2d day of November next, at 12 o'clock noon on each of these days, for the public examination of the said John Thomson, and of his family, and others acquainted with his affairs, within the town-house of Stirling; and the Trustee further intimates, that on Tuesday the 3d day of November next, at 12 o'clock noon, a meeting of the said John Thomson's Creditors is to be held, within Mason's Inn, Stirling, for instructing the Trustee as to the management and recovery of the bankrupt's estate.

The Trustee hereby requires the said Creditors to produce, in his hands, the claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths on the verity thereof, at or previous to said meeting, so far as not already produced; and unless the said productions are made between and the 5th day of March next, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate.

Stirling, October 5, 1812.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN GARDENER, Soap and Candle-Maker in Ayr.

At a meeting of the said Creditors, held upon the 30th day of September last, being the first day after the last examination of the bankrupt, he made an offer to the Creditors of a composition of 7s. in the pound on the whole debts due by him, payable by two instalments, at 3 and 6 months from the 22d day of October current, for payment of which composition he offered Alexander Bruce, farmer in Tasshill, as caution-er. With this offer the Creditors present being satisfied, the Trustee, in terms of the statute, hereby requests a general meeting of the Creditors, to be held within the office of David Hunter, writer in Ayr, upon Thursday the 22d day of October current, at one o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of deciding on said offer of composition.

October 2, 1812.
