BUILDING GROUND

AT KINGSTON, NEAR GLASGOW, AND SHOP, HOUSE, and STABLE, and GROUND for FEUING, on the East Side of Queen Street, Glasgow, for Sale.

To be Sold, by public roup, within the Parliament or New Session-house of Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 16th day of June next, betwixt the hours of five and seven in the afternoon, by authority of the Lords of Council and Session, and in presence of the Lord Ordinary on the Bills,

Lot 1st. ALL and WHOLE that PIECE of GROUND situated on the East Side of Queen Street of Glasgow, on which stables and other houses are built, extending to 34 feet in front along Queen Street, and 34 feet back, and containing 205 square yards or thereby. This is a valuable steading of ground, lying within 50 yards of Argyle Street. As also, ALL and WHOLE that DOUBLE SHOP, being the fourth shop from the corner of Argyle Street and Queen Street, lying on the east side of Queen Street, Glasgow. This property has been used both as a shop and dwelling house, and consists of four apartments on the ground storey, and four apartments on the sunk storey.

Upset price 945l.

Lot 2d. ALL and WHOLE the just and equal THIRD pro indiviso, which belonged to the deceased William Dunlop, Surgeon in Glasgow, of all and whole that part of the barony of Gorbals called Upper Wind Mill Croft or Kingston, consisting of 10 acres 1 rood 12 falls and 21-100th parts of a fall, situated immediately to the west of Tradestown, on the south side of the road from Glasgow to Paisley.

These 10 acres 1 rood 12 falls and 21-100th parts of a fall, are part of 23 acres 3 roods and 36 falls originally feued from the Magistrates of Glasgow, and are held from them for payment of a yearly feu-duty of 37l. 19s. 5d. sterling, to be doubled every 19th year, in full of all composition for the entry of heirs and singular successors; with power to the vassal to redeem at 25 years purchase, in manner mentioned in the original feu-charter. The public burdens are very small.

The upset price of this lot is 428l. 15s. 6d.

N. B. The above property is burdened with the payment of one-third of the debts affecting, amounting in May 1812, to 1,378l. 12s. 6d. besides interest thereon, and any other advances which may have since been made on account of said property, and for which the purchaser must become liable over and above the purchase money.

The articles of roup, and conditions of sale and title-deeds, and also a plan of Kingston, may be seen in the hands of Mr George Bruce, Depute-clerk of Session; and application may be made by intending purchasers to C. D. Donald and J. P. Fleming, Writers in Glasgow; or to George Dunlop and Walter Dickson, W. S. for further information.
