- (2) On the posting of an outgoing packet the sender shall fill up such certificates and other documents and affix such labels respecting the contents of the packet as may be required by the law of the country or place in which the packet is posted or to which it is addressed, or as the Post Office may direct.

- and such fee (if charged) shall be paid by the addressee if the packet or the mail bag (as the case may be) is delivered to him.

Payment of postage and fees

- 16.—(1) Except as the Post Office may otherwise direct, and subject to the provisions of this Scheme, the postage and fees payable on every outgoing postal packet and the fees payable in respect of postal facilities shall be prepaid.
- (2) The provisions of this Scheme with reference to prepayment of postage and fees shall not apply to postage and fees payable on postal packets with respect to which the Post Office has entered into an arrangement with the senders thereof for the grant of credit facilities.
- (3) Payment of postage or fees payable under this Scheme may be denoted:
- (a) by adhesive postage stamps bearing the effigy of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, being stamps of denominations of money in the currency of the United Kingdom provided for by the Decimal Currency Act 1967;
 - (b) by postage stamps of such denominations embossed, impressed or printed on envelopes, covers, wrappers, cards or letters forms authorised by the Post Office for postal use, or on other postal forms, or by such postage stamps which have been cut out of, or otherwise detached from, any such envelopes, covers, wrappers, cards, letter forms or other postal forms;

- (5) packets bearing the impression of postal franking machines or intended for impression by postal franking machines, and packets on which payment of postage is denoted by a printed impression, or by an impression made by any other device authorised by the Post Office, shall be accepted only at such Post Offices, within such hours, and under and subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Post Office may consider appropriate.
- (6) Except as regards any postal franking machine the use of which is for the time being authorised by a licence in writing granted by the Post Office, the provisions of Schedule 2 to the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1975 (provided that references in that Schedule to provisions of the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1975 shall be read as references to the corresponding provisions of this Scheme) shall apply with respect to the granting and termination by the Post Office of authority to use a postal franking machine and the use thereof.
- (7) Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, the stamp or impression denoting payment of postage or fees shall be placed in such position on the envelope, cover, postcard or other form as the Post Office may consider appropriate.
- (8) No stamp or impression which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed, shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced or to have anything written or printed or impressed across it within the meaning of this provision, by reason only that it is distinctly perforated with initials by means of a punch if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps.

Unpaid or underpaid postage

- 17.—(1) An outgoing postal packet (including an air mail packet) upon which no part, or part only of the postage thereon has been prepaid (not being an insured letter or other registered postal packet or a postal packet the postage on which is subject to such an arrangement as is mentioned in paragraph 16(2)) may at the discretion of the Post Office, unless it is dealt with and forwarded in the manner provided by sub-paragraph (2), be dealt with in either of the following ways:
- (a) it may be forwarded charged with the postal deficiency or,
 - (b) it may be returned to the sender in order that the postage deficiency be made good.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in sub-paragraph (1), where no part, or a part only, of the postage payable on an outgoing postal packet (including an air mail packet) has been prepaid, the Post Office (whether or not requested so to do by the sender) may (if it thinks fit), instead of dealing with the packet in accordance with that sub-paragraph, affix to the packet stamps to the value of the postage deficiency, or endorse thereon an indication that it should be treated as if the full postage thereon had been paid, and the packet shall thereupon be forwarded as if the full postage thereon had been prepaid; and the sender of a packet so forwarded shall pay to the Post Office on demand the amount of the postage deficiency.
- (3) An air mail packet on which no part, or a part only, of the postage payable thereon has been prepaid (not being a packet the postage on which is subject to such an arrangement as is mentioned in paragraph 16(2) or which is or has been dealt with by the Post Office in the manner provided by sub-paragraph (2)), may be dealt with as if it were not an air mail packet.
- (4) An incoming postal packet (other than a packet redirected from an address outside the British postal area to an address in that area) upon which no part, or a part only, of the postage payable thereon has been prepaid:
- (a) unless it is an insured letter or other registered postal packet, may be detained and returned to the country of origin, or may be forwarded charged with the amount of the postage deficiency, in addition to an amount of 20p payable at the discretion of the Post Office;
 - (b) if it is an insured letter or other registered postal packet shall be forwarded without any charge in respect of the postage deficiency.
- (5) The following provisions (as appropriate) shall apply to an incoming postal packet redirected from an address outside the British postal area, whether or not within the country in which it was posted, to an address in the British postal area:

- (a) a postal packet, other than an insured letter or other registered postal packet, shall be forwarded charged with the following sum, unless it has been prepaid on the redirection of the packet:
- (i) if the postage on the first transmission was fully prepaid, a sum equal to the difference (if any) between the amount of that postage and the postage which would have been chargeable if the packet had been originally addressed to the new address;
 - (ii) otherwise, a sum equal to the amount which would have been chargeable on the packet under sub-paragraph (4) if the packet had been originally addressed to the new address, and were forwarded in accordance with (a) of that sub-paragraph;
- (b) an insured letter or other registered postal packet shall be forwarded charged with the following sum (unless it has been prepaid on the redirection of the packet), that is to say, a sum equal to the difference (if any) between the postage chargeable on the first transmission, whether or not that postage was fully prepaid, and the postage which would have been chargeable if the packet had been originally addressed to the new address;
- (c) a postal packet of whatever description which has been transmitted by air to the British postal area after redirection without prepayment of additional postage in respect of the transmission by air shall be forwarded charged with such sum (in addition to any sum charged under (a) or (b) of this sub-paragraph) as the overseas Postal Administration concerned has requested the Post Office to collect in respect of that transmission.
- (6) Where the amount chargeable under sub-paragraph (4) or (5) would otherwise be less than 21p the amount charged shall be 21p.
- (7) Any sums charged on an incoming postal packet under sub-paragraphs (4) and (5), and any other sums payable in respect of the packet under the law, regulations or Scheme in force in any part of the British postal area or any country or place from or through which the packet has been transmitted, shall be payable on the delivery of the packet, and the Post Office may withhold the packet from delivery until such sums have been paid.
- (8) In this paragraph, "the postage deficiency", in relation to a postal packet, means, if no part of the postage payable thereon has been prepaid, the full amount of the postage which ought to have been prepaid thereon, and if part only of such postage has been prepaid, the difference between such full amount and the amount of such postage which has been prepaid.

Treatment of irregular packets

- 18.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Scheme, any postal packet which is found when in the post not to comply with a provision of the law of the country or place in which the packet was posted or to which it is addressed or of any country or place through which it may pass (including the Act, this Scheme, and the Postal Packets (Customs and Excise) Regulations 1975), or not to be accompanied by a document required by any such provision, may be either detained or returned or given up to the sender, or forwarded and delivered, or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as the Post Office may think fit.
- (2) Any postal packet which is found when in the post to be such that the conveyance or delivery thereof is prohibited by paragraph 11(2)(k) may if the Post Office thinks fit be delivered to the addressee subject to such charge as the Post Office may fix in the particular case, not exceeding the aggregate amount of the separate charges which would have been payable in respect of all the individual postal packets contained thereon if each of them had been posted singly without prepayment of postage.
- (3) Any postal packet (other than a letter), which is found when in the post not to comply with the provisions of this Scheme which are applicable to postal packets of its particular description, may if the Post Office thinks fit be treated as if it had been posted as a letter or as a postal packet of such other description as the Post Office considers appropriate, and the provisions of this Scheme shall apply thereto accordingly.

Undeliverable packets

19. Where for any reason an incoming postal packet cannot be delivered, it may at the discretion of the Post Office either be returned to the sender, or be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Post Office may think fit.

- (e) Stamps or impressions of postal franking machines, presses or devices denoting payment of postage or fees shall be placed on the address side of the postcard, as far as possible on the right-hand half.

- (2) If any postcard is found when in the post not to comply with any of the rules (a) to (d) inclusive in sub-paragraph (1), it shall be dealt with and charged as a letter.
- (3) If any postcard is found when in the post not to comply with rule (e) in sub-paragraph (1), it shall be dealt with as if the postage or fees denoted by the stamps or impressions placed otherwise than in conformity with that rule had not been prepaid.

 - (b) in the case of any other registered packet, the sum of £12.

- (2) In the case of an outgoing insured letter, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of £1000 or such smaller sum as, having regard to the amount of the compensation fee paid in respect of the letter according to the scale set out in Schedule 6 in addition to the postage and registration fee, may be from time to time fixed in accordance with the terms of any relevant postal arrangement with a Postal Administration.

 - (7) In the case of an insured letter which was redirected under paragraph 40 of the Scheme after delivery at the place to which it was addressed, no compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) for loss of, or damage to, that insured letter, or any of its contents, while in the course of further transmission by post, unless the letter was so redirected by being posted anew and full postage was prepaid on such posting, in which case compensation may be paid subject to and in accordance with this paragraph, for any such loss or damage which the Post Office is satisfied occurred while the letter was in course of transmission by post after such re-posting.
 - (8) No compensation may be paid in respect of any insured letter or its contents if the letter has been destroyed or otherwise dealt with or disposed of by the Post Office pursuant to Section 8(3) of the Act or sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 18, or paragraph 19, of the Scheme, or by another Postal Administration under a provision of the law of the country or place of that Postal Administration.

Prohibition

- 6.—(1) Save as the Post Office may either generally or in any particular case allow, there shall not be conveyed or delivered by post any parcel or a description referred to in section 11(1)(a), (b) or (c) of the Act.
- (2) Subject to the powers of the Post Office under paragraph 12, there shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any parcel:
- (a) containing:

Provided that such narcotics may be sent for medical or scientific purposes to countries which admit them when sent for those purposes by parcel post;
 - (ii) any living creatures, other than bees, leeches and silkworms;

 - (f) having anything written, printed or otherwise impressed upon or attached to any part of the parcel which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address of the parcel or by inconvenient proximity to the stamp or stamps used to denote payment of postage or fees, or in any other way, is in itself, or in the manner in which it is written, printed, impressed or attached, likely in the opinion of the Post Office to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with the parcel;
 - (g) bearing any stamp or impression of a postal franking machine, press or device denoting payment of postage or fees which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced or to have anything written or printed or otherwise impressed across it within the meaning of this provision, by reason only that it is distinctly perforated with initials by means of a punch if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps;

Packing

- 7.—(1) Every parcel shall be made up and secured in such manner as in the opinion of the Post Office is calculated to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post, to prevent any tampering with the contents, and to prevent injury to any other postal packet in course of conveyance, or to any receptacle in which the same is conveyed, or to any other postal equipment, or to an officer of the Post Office or other person who may deal with such packet.
- (2) Without prejudice to paragraph 22(1) any article contained in a parcel shall be adequately packed as a protection against damage in course of transmission. In particular:

- (a) an article which is of a fragile nature shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength and shall be surrounded in that container with sufficient and suitable material to protect the article against the effects of concussion, pressure and knocks to which parcels are ordinarily exposed in transmission and the parcel shall bear the words "FRAGILE WITH CARE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;
- (b) an article which is liable to be damaged by bending shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength to prevent the article from being bent in transmission and the parcel shall bear the words "DON'T NOT BEND" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address;
- (c) a parcel containing any perishable article shall bear the word "PERISHABLE" written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address.

 - (b) the length thereof exceeds 1.05 metres, or (if that limit of length is not exceeded)
 - (c) the combined length and girth thereof exceeds 2 metres (the girth to be measured round the thickest part).
- (2) Where the postal arrangement applicable in relation to the conveyance of a parcel stipulates a lower limit than is specified in any one or more of (a), (b) or (c) in sub-paragraph (1), that limit or those limits shall apply, instead of the respective limit or limits so specified.
- (3) Save as aforesaid, no parcel shall be posted, conveyed, or delivered by post unless its size is within the following minimum limits:
- (a) where the parcel is made up in the form of roll, its length and twice its diameter taken together shall not be less than 170 millimetres, and either its length or its diameter shall not be less than 100 millimetres;
 - (b) where the parcel is not so made up, it shall have at least one surface measuring not less than 140 millimetres in length and not less than 90 millimetres in breadth.

Fees for customs clearance

9. With respect to the clearance through customs of an incoming parcel, the Post Office may charge on each such parcel a fee of 80p which (if charged) shall be paid by the addressee if the parcel shall be delivered to him.

Posting

- 10.—(1) All outgoing parcels shall be posted: (a) by being handed to an officer on duty at the counter of a post office designated by the Post Office for that purpose, on the days and within the hours during which such office shall be open to the public for the posting of parcels, or (b) (in circumstances in which the Post Office permits that mode of posting) by being handed to an officer of the Post Office for the time being authorised to receive parcels for the post otherwise than as aforesaid.
- (2) Every outgoing parcel shall bear the name and full address of the addressee and of the sender, which shall be written by means other than a pencil, or by means of a copying-ink pencil applied to a surface made damp for the purpose.
- (3) On the posting of an outgoing parcel, the sender shall fill up a despatch note in a prescribed form if required so to do, and shall fill up such customs declarations, certificates, and other documents and affix such labels respecting the contents of the parcels as may be required by the law of the country or place in which the parcel is posted or to which it is addressed, or as the Post Office may direct.

Payment of postage and fees

- 11.—(1) Except as the Post Office may otherwise direct, and subject to the provisions of this Scheme, the postage and fees payable on every outgoing parcel shall be prepaid.
- (2) The provision of this Scheme with reference to prepayment of postage and fees shall not apply to postage and fees payable on parcels with respect to which the Post Office has entered into an arrangement with the senders thereof for the grant of credit facilities.
- (3) Payment of postage or fees payable under this Scheme may be denoted:
- (a) by adhesive postage stamps bearing the effigy of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, being stamps of denominations of money in the currency of the United Kingdom provided for by the Decimal Currency Act 1967;
 - (b) by embossing, impressed or printed postage stamps of such denominations which have been cut out of, or otherwise detached from, any envelopes, covers, wrappers, cards or letter forms, or other postal forms, authorised by the Post Office for postal use;
 - (c) by means of impressions made by postal franking machines, printing presses, or other printing or stamping devices, being machines, presses or devices operated under the direction, or with the authority, of the Post Office;
 - (d) in such other manner as the Post Office may from time to time permit.
- (4) No stamp indicating on the face thereof payment of a registration fee (with or without postage) shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees on any uninsured parcel.
- (5) Parcels bearing the impression of postal franking machines or intended for impression by postal franking machines, and parcels on which payment of postage is denoted by a printed impression, or by an impression made by any other device authorised by the Post Office, shall be accepted only at such post offices, within such hours, and under and subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Post Office may consider appropriate.
- (6) Except as regards any postal franking machine the use of which is for the time being authorised by a licence in writing granted by the Post Office, the provisions of Schedule 2 to the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1975 (provided that references in that Schedule to provisions of the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1975 shall be read as references to the corresponding provisions of this Scheme) shall apply with respect to the granting and termination by the Post Office of authority to use a postal franking machine and the use thereof.
- (7) The stamp or impression denoting payment of postage or fees shall be placed in such position on the parcel as the Post Office may consider appropriate.
- (8) No stamp or impression which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way, or across which anything is written or printed or otherwise impressed, shall be used to denote payment of postage or fees; but a stamp shall not be deemed to be imperfect or mutilated or defaced or to have anything written or printed or impressed across within the meaning of this provision, by reason only that it is distinctly perforated with initials by means of a punch if the perforating holes are not larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps.

Treatment of irregular parcels

- 12.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Scheme, any parcel which is found when in the post not to comply with a provision of the law of the country of place in which the parcel was posted or to which it is addressed or of any country or place through which it may pass (including the Act, this Scheme and the provisions referred to in paragraph 31), or not to be accompanied by a document required by any such provision, or to have been posted otherwise than in accordance with paragraph 10(1), may be either detained or returned or given up to the sender, or dealt with or disposed of in such a manner as the Post Office may think fit.
- (2) Any incoming parcel which is found in the post to be such that the conveyance of delivery thereof is prohibited by paragraph 6(2)(i) may, if the Post Office thinks fit, be delivered to the addressee subject to such charge as the Post Office may fix in the particular case, not exceeding the aggregate amount of the separate charges which would have been payable in respect of all the individual parcels or other postal packets contained therein if each of them had been posted separately without prepayment of postage in the British postal area addressed to the country or place of origin of the parcel.

Unpaid or underpaid postage

- 13.—(1) An outgoing parcel (including an air parcel) upon which no part or a part only, of the postage payable thereon has been prepaid (not being an insured parcel or registered parcel or a parcel the postage of which is subject to such an arrangement as is mentioned in paragraph 11(2)) may at the discretion of the Post Office be returned to sender in order that the postage deficiency be made good.
- (2) In this paragraph "postage deficiency" means, if no part of the postage thereon has been prepaid, the full amount of the postage which ought to have been prepaid, and if part only of such postage has been prepaid, the difference between such full amount and the amount of such postage which has been prepaid.

Charges on incoming parcels

- 14.—(1) There shall be charged on an incoming parcel and paid by the addressee on its delivery, the amount of any postage deficiency, and any fees and charges payable in respect of the parcel under the law, regulations, or schemes in force in any part of the British postal area or any country of place from or through which the parcel has been transmitted which have not been paid.
- (2) In this paragraph "postage deficiency" has the same meaning as in paragraph 13.

Return of outgoing parcels

- 15.—(1) Where an outgoing parcel is received back from a country of place outside the British postal area for return to the sender in accordance with the relative postal arrangement, there shall be charged on the parcel so received and paid by the sender, whether or not the parcel is returned to the sender:
- (a) the amount of any postage deficiency, and the amount of any fees and charges payable in respect of the parcel under the law, regulations, schemes in force in any part of the British postal area or any country of place from or through which the parcel has been transmitted which have not been paid; and
- (b) postage in respect of the return transmission at such rate, and such other charges, as the Post Office may consider appropriate having regard to the terms of the relative postal arrangement.
- (2) In this paragraph "postal deficiency" has the same meaning as in paragraph 13.

Withholding of parcels from delivery or return

- 16.—(1) The Post Office may withhold any incoming parcel from delivery to the addressee, or any outgoing parcel received back in the manner described in paragraph 15 from return to the sender, until all sums due thereon have been paid.
- (2) Where the sums due in respect of any such parcel, or of parcels on hand for delivery or return to the same person on any one occasion, amount to more than £30, the Post Office may give notice to that person accordingly and require that, before such delivery or return is effected, he should pay the amount due within such period and at such office as shall be specified in such notice.

Undeliverable parcels

- 17.—(1) Subject to the following sub-paragraphs of this paragraph, an incoming parcel which cannot be delivered, and an outgoing parcel which is received back from a country or place outside the British postal area for return to the sender in accordance with the relative postal arrangement and which cannot be returned to the sender, or in respect of which any sums due thereon under paragraph 14 or paragraph 15 have not been paid within such period as the Post Office may consider reasonable, may be dealt with or disposed of as the Post Office may think fit.
- (2) Where an incoming parcel cannot be delivered as originally addressed and, in accordance with the relative postal arrangement, the sender has furnished the name and address within the British postal area of a substituted addressee, and the parcel is forwarded to the substituted address, there shall be charged on the parcel on its delivery and paid by the substituted addressee (in addition to any amount in respect of postage deficiency, fees and charges thereon under paragraph 11), the following additional postage:
- (a) if the parcel does not exceed the limit of weight applicable to inland parcels, postage at the rate of inland postage chargeable on an ordinary inland parcel of the same weight;
- (b) if the parcel exceeds the said limit of weight, postage at the rate of inland postage chargeable on an ordinary inland parcel of the greatest weight within that limit, with the addition of such sum not exceeding that amount as the Post Office may consider appropriate.
- (3) Where an incoming parcel cannot be delivered within such time as the Post Office may consider reasonable, or delivery of it is refused, and subsequently the sender or the addressee requests that the parcel should be delivered, the Post Office may, if it thinks fit, comply with such request; and in that event there shall be charged on the parcel and paid by the addressee on its delivery, in addition to any amount charged thereon under paragraph 14 (including, in a case where the parcel was returned by the Post Office to the country or place of its origin, any further charge incurred by reason, or in consequence, of its return), additional postage of the like amount as the amount of additional postage which would be payable under sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph on delivery of an incoming parcel of the same weight to be substituted address.

Air parcels

- 18.—(1) An air parcel shall bear an "Air Mail" label affixed close to the address (or to each place where the address appears, if the parcel is addressed in more than one place).
- (2) A parcel shall be transmissible as an air parcel only if it is addressed to any such country or place as may from time to time be prescribed.

- (3) Notwithstanding the definitions of air parcel in paragraph 3, if the Post Office considers that such a parcel addressed to a destination in Europe can be conveyed at an equivalent speed by surface means, it may despatch the parcel by such means and no part of the postage paid shall be refundable to the sender.

PART III

POSTAL FACILITIES

General

19. The postal facilities referred to in this Scheme may be provided by the Post Office at such times, during such periods, at such post offices, in such circumstances, and on such conditions (not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Scheme) as the Post Office may from time to time consider expedient.

Express delivery

20. Upon every outgoing parcel marked with the word "Express" or "Exprès" to indicate the desire of the sender that the parcel may be delivered by special messenger, being a parcel addressed to a country or place wherein delivery by special messenger is provided for by the relative postal arrangement, there shall be charged and prepaid the fee of £1.50.

Cash on delivery parcels

- 21.—(1) The trade charge on such a cash on delivery parcel shall not exceed £1,000 or such lower limit as may be fixed by the relative postal arrangement, and shall be a sum of money in whole pounds or in whole new pence, or in pounds and whole new pence.

- (2) The following rules shall apply to outgoing cash on delivery parcels:

- (a) There shall be charged and paid at the time of posting, in addition to the postage and any other charges payable on the parcel, a cash on delivery fee appropriate to the amount of the trade charge that is to be collected on the parcel, according to the scale set out in Schedule 2.
- (b) The sender shall mark on the cover of the parcel (by means other than a pencil) the word "Remboursement" followed by the amount of the trade charge.
- (c) Where the sender is required to fill up a despatch note, he shall mark thereon (by means other than a pencil) the amount of the trade charge.
- (d) The sender shall fill up (by means other than a pencil) the prescribed form (in the Scheme referred to as the "trade charge money order form") as may be required.
- (e) No erasure or correction shall be made in the amount of the trade charge wherever it may be required to be shown.
- (f) The Post Office shall furnish to the sender a certificate of posting bearing an acknowledgement that the cash on delivery fee has been paid and stating the amount of the trade charge.
- (g) The Post Office shall, upon receiving from the Postal Administration of the country or place of destination of the parcel, the trade charge which has been collected from the addressee, remit the amount to the sender or a person named by him by means of a trade charge money order or by such means as the Post Office may think fit.

- (3) The following rules shall apply to incoming cash on delivery parcels:

- (a) There shall be charged and paid on the delivery of the parcel, in addition to any other sums due thereon, a fee of 50p.
- (b) The parcel shall not be given up to the addressee or opened at his request until the trade charge, the fee chargeable under (a) of this sub-paragraph, and any other sums due on the parcel have been paid.
- (c) The Post Office shall, upon receiving the trade charge from the addressee, remit the amount to the sender or a person named by him through the Postal Administration of the country or place of origin of the parcel by means of the trade charge money order form received with the parcel, or by such other means as the Post Office may think fit.

- (4) A trade charge money order shall be crossed and marked "not negotiable", and (except where the Post Office shall otherwise direct) shall be paid only to a banker.

- (5) The order shall be crossed either:

- (a) generally by the addition on its face of two parallel transverse lines, or
- (b) specially by the addition on its face of the name of a banker between the two parallel transverse lines, in which case the order shall be deemed to be crossed to and shall be paid to that banker.

A banker to whom a trade charge money order is crossed may again cross it to another banker and his agent for collection.

- (6) The following rules shall apply to the payment of a trade charge money order to a banker:

- (a) A trade charge money order may be presented for payment by a banker at any office at which payment or such orders presented by a banker may from time to time be authorised by the Post Office.
- (b) A trade charge money order which is presented for payment by a banker to whom it has been delivered for collection may be paid notwithstanding that the receipt thereon has not been signed if it has the name of the banker presenting it written or stamped upon its face (whether by way of crossing or otherwise) or bears a code or device of that banker, being a code or device in terms and of a type, design and size and in a position approved by the Post Office.

- (7) If a trade charge money order is presented for payment after the expiration of a period of six months' after the last day of the month in which it was issued, it shall not be paid until it has been referred to a post office for inquiry; and it may be retained by the Post Office until such inquiry has been completed and the Post Office is satisfied that it ought to be paid.

Delivery free of charges

- 21.—(1) Where the relative postal arrangement so provides, the sender of an outgoing parcel other than a cash on delivery parcel may request that the parcel shall be delivered free of any customs duty, postal fees and charges which would otherwise be payable by the addressee under the law or regulations of the country or place of destination, and in such case the following rules shall apply:

- (a) The sender shall pay at the time of posting such sum as the Post Office may require as a deposit in respect of any such customs duty, postal fees and charges as, in the opinion of the Post Office, might otherwise be so payable, and shall sign an undertaking in the prescribed form to pay to the Post Office on demand the aggregate amount of the customs duty, postal fees and charges which are charged in the country or place of destination. Any deposit so paid shall be appropriated in or towards the amount payable under such undertaking.

- (b) The sender shall also pay to the Post Office at the time that any amount is paid in accordance with the undertaking under (a) or repaid by the Post Office under (e) of this sub-paragraph, a fee of 50p. for each parcel posted.
 - (c) The sender shall mark on the cover of the parcel either the words "To be delivered free of charges" or the words "Franc de droits".
 - (d) The Post Office shall furnish to the sender a certificate of posting bearing an acknowledgment that the said deposit has been paid.
 - (e) If the deposit paid exceeds the aggregate amount of the customs duty, postal fees and charges which are charged in the country or place of destination, the Post Office shall repay the excess to the sender.
- (2) Where the relative postal arrangements so provides, the sender of an outgoing cash on delivery parcel may request that the parcel shall be delivered free of customs duty and of all other charges due thereon at the time of delivery except the trade charge, and in such case the rules set out in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall apply;

Provided that the words to be marked on the cover of the parcel shall be "To be delivered free of charges except the trade charge".

- (3) Payment of the sums or amounts referred to in sub-paragraph (1) may be denoted by means of impressions made by postal franking machines as if such sums or amounts were postage or fees payable under this Scheme.

Insured parcels and uninsured parcels containing valuables

23.—(1) Where the relative postal arrangement so provides, an outgoing parcel may be insured, and in such case the following rules shall apply:

- (a) The parcel shall not be addressed to an addressee identified by initials only, or addressed by means of a pencil.
 - (b) The parcel shall be sealed by lead or steel seals, or by wax seals all of the same kind of wax, in a manner and quantity calculated to prevent tampering with the contents without damage to the wrapping or seals; each seal shall bear the same private mark of the sender. As an alternative, all joints and flaps may be sealed with adhesive tape of paper, each strip of tape or paper bearing the sender's initials or signature or distinctive mark or stamp. These sealing strips must be affixed in such a way that unauthorised removal would be apparent.
 - (c) The seals, labels and postage stamps affixed to the parcel shall be so spaced that they cannot conceal injuries to the cover; and no label or postage stamp shall be folded over two sides of the cover so as to hide the edge. Address labels may only be used on parcels whose declared value is less than £120. If an address label is used it must not exceed 15 centimetres in length nor 10.7 centimetres in width.
 - (d) Where the contents include coin, bullion or jewellery, they shall be enclosed in a strong metal box, or in a case made of wood of a minimum thickness of 10 millimetres, unless plywood is used and the edges are reinforced by metal angle strips, in which case the minimum thickness of the wood shall be 5 millimetres. The box or case shall be sewn up or otherwise fastened in a wrapper of linen, canvas, strong paper or other substantial material. The address shall be written on the actual outer covering of the parcel and seals not more than 75 millimetres apart shall be placed along the edges of each joint or loose flap. Where the contents exceed £120 in value the box or case shall be at least 1.05 metres in length and girth combined.
 - (e) The sender shall mark on the cover of the parcel (by means other than a pencil) the words "Insured for" followed by the amount of money (in words and figures) for which the parcel is to be insured, which amount shall not exceed whichever shall be the lower of the following limits, that is to say, (i) in any case, the real monetary value of the contents and the packing, and (ii) in the case of a parcel for transmission through a British Forces Post Office or to a ship of the Royal Navy £100, and in any other case £1,000 or such smaller amount as may be fixed from time to time by the relative postal arrangement.
 - (f) Where the sender is required to fill up a despatch note he shall mark thereon (by means other than a pencil), the amount in words and figures for which the parcel is to be insured.
 - (g) No erasure or correction shall be made in the address or in the amount for which the parcel is to be insured, wherever those particulars are to be shown.
 - (h) There shall be charged and paid at the time of posting, in addition to the postage and any other charges payable on the parcel, an insurance fee appropriate to the amount for which the parcel is to be insured according to the scale of fees set out in Part I of Schedule 2.
 - (i) On the posting of the parcel, the Post Office shall furnish to the sender a certificate of posting bearing an acknowledgement that he insurance fee has been paid and stating the amount for which the parcel has been insured. At the request of the sender, the Post Office shall furnish a duplicate of such certificate, on payment of a fee of 6½p.
- (2) If an outgoing uninsured parcel addressed to such a country or place as is referred to in sub-paragraph (3) (a) of paragraph 6 is found in the post to contain any such thing as is mentioned in that sub-paragraph, the parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Post Office may think fit.
- (3) On the delivery of an incoming insured parcel, the recipient shall give a written receipt therefor in the prescribed form. Where such a receipt is not obtained, the parcel may nevertheless be delivered; or it may be withheld and dealt with or disposed of in such a manner as the Post Office may think fit.

Compensation

24.—(1) In the case of parcels other than those for transmission through a British Forces Post Office outside the British postal area, where the Post Office is satisfied that any article of pecuniary value enclosed in, or forming part of, a parcel (including an insured parcel) has been lost or damaged whilst in the course of transmission by post, it may (but subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph) pay such sum as it may think just by way of compensation for such loss or damage to any person who in its opinion establishes a reasonable claim thereto, whether as the sender or as the addressee of the parcel.

- (2) The total amount of compensation which the Post Office may pay under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of:
- (a) any one uninsured parcel and its contents shall not in any case exceed £25. Such payment shall be according to the scale set out in Part 2 of Schedule 3, having regard to the weight of the parcel;

 - (b) in any other case, the amount by which such value has been diminished by damage suffered whilst the parcel was in the course of transmission by post.
- (4) No compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of an outgoing uninsured parcel containing any such article as is mentioned in paragraph 6(3) if the parcel is addressed to a country of place to which, under the relative postal arrangement, insured parcels may be sent from the British postal area.
- (5) No compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any parcel or its contents unless the Post Office is satisfied that the conditions set out in paragraph 7 and, in the case of an outgoing insured parcel, paragraph 23(1) have been complied with.
- (6) In the case of a parcel which was redirected under paragraph 25 after delivery at the place to which it was addressed, no compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) for loss of, or damage to, the parcel, or any of its contents while in the course of further transmission by post unless full postage and in the case of an insured parcel a fresh insurance fee, where possible, was prepaid on such redirection, in which case compensation may be paid subject to and in accordance with this paragraph, for any such loss or damage which the Post Office is satisfied occurred while the parcel was in the course of transmission by post after such redirection.
- (7) No compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any parcel or its contents if the parcel has been destroyed or otherwise dealt with or disposed of by the Post Office pursuant to Section 8(3) of the Act or sub-paragraph (1) or paragraph 12, paragraph 17 or sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of paragraph 23 or by another Postal Administration under a provision of the law of the country or place of that Postal Administration.

- (12) If compensation has been paid to any person in respect of the loss of an insured parcel which the sender has insured for a sum exceeding the market value of the contents and packing and the parcel subsequently comes into the possession of the Post Office, then upon tender of the parcel to that person (whether or not he accepts it), he shall repay to the Post Office the sum paid by way of compensation or such part thereof as the Post Office may require.
- (13) Where the Post Office pays compensation in respect of a parcel in accordance with the foregoing sub-paragraphs it may additionally pay an amount equivalent to the amount of postage paid by the sender of the parcel.
