

EXPLANATORY NOTE

These regulations amend the Supplementary Benefit (Resources) Regulations 1981.

They propose a special disregard on the income from an adoption allowance payable to a family in receipt of supplementary benefit. Local authorities are now able under Section 32 of the Children Act 1975 to submit schemes for the payment of allowances in certain circumstances to people who adopt children. A family in receipt of supplementary benefit would at present benefit by only £4.00 of such an allowance. To ensure that they are no worse off than other families receiving the allowance it is proposed to disregard any amount of the allowance which exceeds the total of the supplementary benefit payable in respect of the child.
