PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM FRIDAY, JULY 15, TO TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1814.

THE following Address has been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

Unto his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, as exercising the Royal Authority over the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in name and behalf of his Majesty.

WE, his Majesty's loyal and deeply attached subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington, beg leave to approach the throne, and to offer to your Royal Highness our warm congratulations on the signal success which has crowned the efforts of Great Britain and her Allies to vindicate the rights of mankind, and to restore freedom, security, and repose to the world.

The great results which we now with exultation contemplate, are, under the blessing of Almighty God, mainly attributable to the wisdom of his Majesty's and of your Royal Highness's councils.

Undaunted by danger, Great Britain, under the guidance of these councils, has unbendingly and unremittingly asserted the great cause of freedom and of justice, and in its maintenance her prowess has been eminently displayed.

Animated by her dignity, the Continental Nations were roused to the vindication of their violated rights. The union for this purpose was cemented by the justice of the common cause; it has prevailed: Europe is restored; and we have seen with feelings of admiration, the delicacy and moderation which have guided the conduct of the Allied Powers in the moment of the most dazzling success; victory never was more gracefully, more splendidly attended; and we hail the eminent display of these qualities in the course of the recent events, as holding out the full assurance of an equitable and permanent adjustment of the differences which have so long agitated the world.

We entreat your Royal Highness to believe, that we deeply participate in the affection and gratitude so justly due, and so universally felt, towards your Royal Highness; and we pray, that your Royal Highness may be long spared to witness and to enjoy the blessings which you have been so eminently instrumental in securing to these realms, and to the world at large

Signed in our presence, and by our desire, at Haddington, this 16th day of May 1814.

HADDINGTON, Lt. and Preses.

[Transmitted by the Honourable Lieutenant-General C. Hope, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THOSE parts of the Farm of BUXLEY, part of Elphinstone, in the parish of Tranent and county of Haddington, lying on the east side of the road leading from Tranent to Ormiston, being the eastern extremity of the estate, and containing about 131 Scots acres, which will be out of lease at Martinmas first 1814.

These lands lie compactly together, are subdivided and inclosed, and the soil adapted for modern husbandry. They are at short distances from Dalkeith, Musselburgh, Tranent, and Ormiston, and in the vicinity of Spinnelsford and Cousland lime-works. The public burdens are moderate, and the lands will be warranted from any farther augmentation of minister's stipend. The parish church was built within these few years, and the manse and school-house, &c. lately repaired.

The tenant will point out the boundaries; and for farther particulars apply to Alexander Dallas, W. S. Edinburgh, with whom are the articles of roup and plan of the lands, &c. July 7, 1814.
