

Edinburg razette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM FRIDAY, JULY 15, TO TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1814.

his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

Unto his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, as exercising the Royal Authority over the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in name and behalf of his Majesty.

WE, his Majesty's loyal and deeply attached subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington, beg leave to approach the throne, and to offer to your Royal Highness our warm congratulations on the signal success which has crowned the efforts of Great Britain and her Allies to vindicate the rights of mankind, and to restore freedom, security. and repose to the world.

The great results which we now with exultation contemplate, are, under the blessing of Almighty God, mainly attributable to the wisdom of his Majesty's and of your Royal Highness's councils.

Undaunted by danger, Great Britain, under the guidance of these councils, has unbendingly and unremittingly asserted the great cause of freedom and of justice, and in its maintenance her prowess has been eminently displayed.

Animated by her dignity, the Continental Nations were roused to the vindication of their violated rights. The union for this purpose was cemented by the justice of the common cause; it has prevailed: Europe is restored; and we have seen with feelings of admiration, the delicacy and moderation which have guided the conduct of the Allied Powers in the moment of the most dazzling success; victory never was more gracefully, more splendidly attended; and we hail the eminent display of these qualities in the course of the recent events, as holding out the full assurance of an equitable and permanent adjustment of the differences which have so long agitated the

We entreat your Royal Highness to believe, that we deeply participate in the affection and gratitude so justly due, and so universally felt, towards your Royal Highness; and we pray, that your Royal Highness may be long spared to witness and to en-

THE following Address has been presented to | joy the blessings which you have been so eminently instrumental in securing to these realms, and to the world at large

Signed in our presence, and by our desire, at Haddington, this 16th day of May 1814. HADDINGTON, Lt. and Prescs.

[Transmitted by the Honourable Lieutenant-General C. Hope, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]
