

Limitations on Use

- 6 The Ship Station shall only use,
- the classes of emission specified in the first column of the First Schedule to this Licence and
 - the frequency relating to such classes of emission specified in the second column of the said First Schedule and
 - the power relating to such classes of emission and such frequencies not exceeding that specified in the third column of the said First Schedule.
- 7 The Lifeboat Stations shall only use,
- the classes of emission specified in the first column of the Second Schedule to this Licence and
 - the frequencies relating to such classes of emission specified in the second column of the said Second Schedule.
- 8 The Radar Station shall only be used on the frequencies specified in the Third Schedule to this Licence.
- 9 (1) The Licensed Stations may only be operated by
- the Licensee,
 - by persons authorised by the Licensee or by the Ship's Master,
- if and for so long as the operator possesses the written authority of the Secretary of State to fill the position of operator of a Ship Station.
- (2) The Lifeboat Stations may be used by anybody in any of the lifeboats of the Ship when these are in use as the result of an emergency.

Conditions of UseOther Regulations

- 10 The Licensee and all other persons operating the Licensed Stations shall observe and comply with the relevant provisions of the Telecommunication Convention.

Apparatus

- 11 (1) The apparatus shall at all times be so designed, constructed, maintained and used that its use does not cause any undue interference with any wireless telegraphy.
- (2) The apparatus comprised in the Ship Station, Lifeboat Stations, and Radar Stations, shall be so constructed or adjusted that, at all times during the continuance of the Licence, it is only capable of transmitting on the frequencies specified in sub-clause 6(b), sub-clause 7(b), or Clause 8 of this Licence as the case may be.
- (3) Any apparatus which is installed at the date of this Licence and had been so installed on or after 1st November 1955 shall comply, at all times during the continuance of this Licence, with the Performance Specifications relating to such apparatus.
- (4) If Performance Specifications are to be altered or replaced the date from which any new Performance Specifications are intended to operate shall be notified to all holders of Ship Radio (VHF) Licences by notice published in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes.

Identification

- 12 (1) Either,
- the call sign given in column 2 at Clause 1 above ("the Call Sign") or
 - the Selective Calling Number given in column 5 at Clause 1 above ("Selcall Number") or
 - the Maritime Mobile Service Identity given in column 4 at Clause 1 above ("MMSI") shall be used whenever it is necessary to identify a Licensed Station except as provided by sub-clause (3) below. Such Call Sign, Selcall Number and MMSI shall not be used in code.

- The Call Sign, followed by two digits (other than the digits 0 or 1), shall be used to identify any of the Lifeboat Stations and each Lifeboat Station shall use different digits in a different combination from each of the other such Lifeboat Stations.
- When using radiotelephony the Ship's name, together with, if necessary, the name of the owner of the ship, the Ship's registration number or port of registry, and not encoded, can be substituted for the Call Sign unless the use of such name would result in confusion with other distress, urgency or safety signals;

Inspection and Closure

- 13 (1) The Licensee shall not permit any unauthorised person to operate the Licensed Stations or to have access to the apparatus.
- (2) The Licensee shall permit any person authorised by the Secretary of State to have access to the Licensed Stations at all reasonable times for the purpose of inspecting and testing the apparatus.
- (3) The Licensee and the Ship's Master shall ensure that the persons operating the Licensed Stations know and observe the terms, limitations and conditions of this Licence at all times.
- (4) The Licensed Stations shall be closed down at any time on the demand of a person acting under the authority of the Secretary of State.
- (5) This Licence, and any notices of variation served on the Licensee in writing under subsection 1(4) of the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949, and the Validation Document described in sub-clause 15(4)(b) below,
- shall be carried on board the Ship in the wireless room and
 - shall be available for inspection, when required by any person authorised by the Secretary of State and by competent authorities of any other country which the Ship visits.
- (6) The Licence Display Slip issued with this Licence and with the Validation Document described in sub-clause 15(4)(b) below shall be displayed on the port side of the cockpit or wheelhouse window of the Ship.

Variation and Revocation

- 14 For the purposes of subsection 1(4) of the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949 this Licence may only be revoked, or its terms, provisions or limitations varied, by a notice in writing of the Secretary of State served on the Licensee, or by a general notice addressed to all holders of Ship Radio (VHF) Licences and published in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes. Any notice so published may take effect forthwith or on such subsequent date as may be specified in the notice.

Period of Licence and Fees Due

- 15 (1) The Licensee shall pay to the Secretary of State, or any agency designated by the Secretary of State, at such times and in such manner as the Secretary of State shall direct, such fees as the Secretary of State shall levy in respect of all charges, due or payable under the Telecommunication Convention, in respect of messages, including radiotelegrams and radiotelephone calls exchanged between the Ship Station and any other station.
- (2) A certified statement of any such sums, signed by an officer of the Secretary of State or a person acting under the authority of the Secretary of State, shall for all purposes (including the purpose of any proceedings by or against the Crown) be sufficient evidence, unless the contrary is proved, of the facts there stated.
- (3) Subject to the payment of a fee in the manner indicated in sub-clause (4) below this Licence shall continue in force from year to year until revoked by the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Licensee shall pay to the Secretary of State
- on the issue of this Licence, the sum prescribed by the Regulations for the time being in force under subsection 2(1) of the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949; and
