Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM FRIDAY, JUNE 7, TO TUESDAY, JUNE 11, 1816.

THE following Addresses have been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Lieutenancy, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Banff.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Lieutenancy, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Banff, beg leave to approach the throne with our most cordial congratulations on the marriage of your illustrious daughter, her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with his Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg.

We rejoice on all occasions which contribute to the happiness of your Royal Highness, and every branch of your august family; and we hail this auspicious alliance as an event which, from the high character and distinguished qualities of his Serene Highness, and the estimable and kindred virtues of his Royal Bride, affords the surest presage of domestic felicity to the illustrious pair.

We contemplate this propitious union as beneficial to the best interest of the British empire. Whatever tends to secure to our country the Protestant succession of your illustrious race on the throne of their ancestors, must always form a material portion of the happiness of his Majesty's loyal subjects.

That his Serene Highness and his Royal Consort may enjoy for many years all the blessings of the connubial state, and that your Royal Highness may long live to witness and participate their happiness, are our fervent wish and prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, in a general meeting held at Banff, this 27th day of May, in the year 1816.

FIFE, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fife, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

Most gracious Prince.

WE, his Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, humbly approach the Throne, with our warmest congratulations on the recent auspicious nuptials of your illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with his Serene Highness, Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg.

While we earnestly desire and pray, that the peculiar favour of Heaven may attend this exalted union, we beg leave to express the high sense we entertain of the importance of an alliance, which is not more grateful to the personal feelings of your Royal Highness, and of the other members of your august family, than it is congenial to the wishes and conducive to the interests of your people; an alliance which affords, under Divine Providence, an additional security for the permanence of our invaluable Constitution in Church and State, as established at the Revolution.

On such a joyful occasion we feel peculiar satisfaction in renewing, along with our fellow subjects, the assurances of our loyal zeal, and of our firm attachment to our venerable King, to your Royal Highness, and to the other branches of the House of Hanover, under whose mild, paternal, and enlightened government, the people of these realms have enjoyed a greater portion of happiness and prosperity than has fallen to the lot of any other nation.

Signed, and sealed with the common seal of the City of Glasgow, by me, Lord Provost and Chief Magistrate of Glasgow, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council of the said City, at Glasgow, the 21st day of May 1816.

HENRY MONTEITH, Provost.
