CONSIGNIA HOLDINGS PLC SCHEME P1/2001

This Scheme, which will come into operation on 26th March 2001, makes provision for (a) the issue, payment and treatment of postal orders by Consignia Holdings plc in the United Kingdom; (b) the issue and payment of postal orders with the authority of Consignia Holdings plc and on its behalf by persons holding office under the Crown; and (c) the issue and payment of postal orders under the authority of Consignia Holdings plc outside the United Kingdom in a Royal Navy ship or at a British Forces Postal Office.

(This note is not part of the Scheme)

CONSIGNIA HOLDINGS PLC (POSTAL ORDER)
SCHEME 2001

Made 14th March 2001
Coming into Operation 26th March 2001

OFFICE OF GAS AND ELECTRICITY MARKETS
NOTICE OF PROPOSAL TO GRANT AN EXTENSION TO A PUBLIC GAS TRANSPORTERS LICENCE

- The Gas and Electricity Markets Authority ("the Authority"), pursuant to section 7(5) of the Gas Act 1986, hereby gives

Consignia Holdings plc, which is the company nominated by the Secretary of State as the Post Office company^(a) in accordance with section 62 of the Postal Services Act 2000^(b) by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by section 112 of the Postal Services Act 2000 and all other powers enabling it in this behalf, hereby makes the following Scheme:

Commencement and citation

1. This Scheme shall come into operation on 26th March 2001 and may be cited as the Consignia Holdings plc (Postal Order) Scheme 2001.

Interpretation

- 2.- (1) In this Scheme -

"the Act" means the Postal Services Act 2000;

"Consignia representative" means a person engaged in the business of -

- (a) Consignia Holdings plc; or
(b) any company appointed by Consignia Holdings plc as its agent;

"the payee" means the person entitled to receive the amount of a postal order;

"postal order" means a postal order issued as a British postal order by Consignia Holdings plc, by a person holding office under the Crown authorised in that behalf as mentioned in paragraph 13 of this Scheme or by the postal administration of a country outside the United Kingdom in pursuance of such an arrangement as is mentioned in section 114(2) of the Act;

"subsidiary" has the meaning ascribed to it by section 736 of the Companies Act 1985^(c).

Issue and amounts of postal order

- 3.- (1) Postal orders may be issued for the sum of fifty pence, one pound, two pounds, three pounds, four pounds, five pounds, six pounds, seven pounds, eight pounds, nine pounds, ten pounds, fifteen pounds or twenty pounds.
- (2) The value of a postal order may be increased by affixing postage stamps not exceeding a total of forty nine pence in value, provided that no payment shall be made by or on behalf of Consignia Holdings plc in respect of:
- (a) a stamp not affixed in the space provided for the purpose on the postal order;
- (b) a stamp which, because of its size, cannot be affixed in the space provided for the purpose on the postal order without covering up the serial number of that postal order;
- (c) a stamp which is not a stamp for the time being authorised or required to be used for the purpose of Consignia Holdings plc; or
- (d) a stamp which has been cut out of any postal packet, document, instrument, or envelope or other cover, or which is perforated with initials or marks.

Circumstances in which payment may be refused

4. A Consignia representative may impound a postal order when that order is presented for payment and may refuse to make payment thereon if that order is cut, defaced or mutilated, or contains an erasure or alteration.

Fee on issue of a postal order

5. The fee payable for a postal order shall be such fee as Consignia Holdings plc may from time to time determine.

Prepayment

6. The amount for which a postal order is to be issued together with the amount of the fee payable therefor shall be prepaid.

Name of payee and office of payment

- 7.- (1) The blank spaces in a postal order for the name of the payee and for the name of the post office at which the order is to be paid may be filled in before or after issue.

(a) The Post Office company (Nomination and Appointed Day) Order 2001 (S.I. 2001/8) which came into force on 5th January 2001, nominated Consignia plc (registered number 4074919) for this purpose.

On 25th January 2001 the name of Consignia plc was changed to Consignia Holdings plc.

(b) 2000 c.26.

(c) 1985 c.6. as substituted by section 144(1) of the Companies Act 1989, c.40.

- (2) If those blank spaces are not filled in before issue, the person to whom the postal order is issued shall, before parting with it, fill in the name of the payee (whether or not the postal order is crossed with a view to payment through a banker), and may fill in the name of the post office at which the order is to be paid.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, if the blank space in a postal order for the name of the payee has not been filled in, the order may be paid to the person or banker by whom it is presented for payment.
- (4) No alteration shall be made in the name of the payee, or of the post office at which the postal order is to be paid, when once filled in, except by the direction of Consignia Holdings plc.

Crossing of postal orders

- 8.- (1) A postal order may be crossed generally by the addition on its face of the words "and Company", or any abbreviation thereof, between two parallel transverse lines, or of two parallel transverse lines simply, or it may be crossed specially by the addition on its face of the name of a banker, in which case the order shall be deemed to be crossed to that banker.
- (2) A postal order which is crossed generally may be crossed specially.
- (3) A banker to whom a postal order is crossed may again cross it specially to another banker as his agent for collection.
- (4) Where a postal order is crossed generally, it shall not be paid except to a banker.
- (5) Where a postal order is crossed specially, it shall not be paid except to the banker to whom it is crossed, or to his agent for collection.
- (6) Where a postal order is crossed specially to more than one banker, except when crossed to an agent for the purpose of collection, payment thereof shall be refused.

Payment of postal orders otherwise than to bankers

- 9.- (1) Sub-paragraphs (2) - (6) below shall apply in relation to the payment of a postal order which is presented for payment otherwise than by a banker to whom it has been delivered for collection.
- (2) If the name of a person has been inserted in the blank space provided in the order for the name of the payee, the order shall not be paid unless the receipt thereon is signed or purports to be signed by that person or by some person on his behalf.
- (3) If the name of a person as the payee has not been inserted in that space, the paying Consignia representative may (if he thinks fit) require the person presenting the order to sign the receipt before payment is made.
- (4) The paying Consignia representative may (if he thinks fit) before making payment take reasonable means to satisfy himself, and refuse payment if not satisfied, that the receipt is signed by or with the authority of the payee, and if the receipt is not signed in his presence, that the person presenting the order is either the payee or his agent authorised in that behalf.
- (5) The paying Consignia representative may (if he thinks fit) require the person presenting the order to sign his name on the order before payment is made, notwithstanding that the receipt has already been signed.
- (6) The paying Consignia representative may refuse or delay the payment of a postal order when it appears to him necessary to do so in cases other than those mentioned in this Scheme.

Payment of postal orders to bankers

- 10.- (1) A crossed postal order which is presented for payment by a banker to whom it has been delivered for collection may be paid notwithstanding that the receipt therein is not signed, if-
- (a) in the case of a postal order which is crossed generally, it has the name of the banker presenting it written or stamped upon the face thereof, or bears a code or device of that banker, being a code or device in terms and of a type, design and size and in a position approved by Consignia Holdings plc;

- (b) in the case of a postal order which is crossed specially and is presented for payment by the banker to whom it is crossed, it bears the name, code or device of that banker as mentioned in (a) above;
- (c) in the case of a postal order which is crossed specially to a second banker as agent for collection, it bears the name, code or device of that banker as mentioned in (a) above.
- (2) A crossed postal order presented for payment by a banker may be paid at any post office in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding that the relevant blank space on the order has been filled in with the name of some particular post office.
- (3) A postal order presented for payment in the United Kingdom by a banker shall not (in the absence of an express arrangement to the contrary between such banker and Consignia Holdings plc) be paid until it has been examined by such Consignia representative as Consignia Holdings plc may from time to time direct.

Payment of postal orders after expiration of six months after last day of month of issue

11. If a postal order is presented for payment after the expiration of a period of six months after the last day of the month in which it was issued, it shall not be paid until it has been referred to a post office for inquiry; and it may be retained by Consignia Holdings plc until such inquiry has been completed and Consignia Holdings plc is satisfied that it ought to be paid.

Remission of fees

12. Consignia Holdings plc may remit in whole or in part any fee payable under this Scheme in such cases or classes of case as it may determine.

Issue and payment of postal orders by persons holding office under the Crown

13. Consignia Holdings plc may authorise any person holding office under the Crown to issue and pay postal orders on its behalf, and the provision of this Scheme shall apply to the issue and payment of postal orders under such authority as it applies to the issue and payment of postal orders by a Consignia representative.

Application of Scheme in special cases

- 14.-(1) Except as provided by this paragraph, this Scheme shall apply only to the issue, payment and treatment of postal orders within the United Kingdom.
- (2) The provisions of this Scheme relating to the issue and payment respectively of postal orders shall apply to the issue and payment respectively of postal orders under the authority of Consignia Holdings plc outside the United Kingdom in a ship of the Royal Navy (whether on the high seas or in any port or place) or at a British Forces' Post Office.
- (3) In relation to postal orders issued at any post office under the charge of the postal administration of a country outside the United Kingdom, being a post office where British postal orders are issued under such an arrangement as is mentioned in section 114(2) of the Act the following paragraph shall be substituted for sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 3 above:
- "(2) The value of a postal order may be increased by affixing in the space provided for the purpose, postage stamps not exceeding a total of forty nine pence in value or the equivalent in the currency of the country in which the order is issued. Any such stamp may either be a stamp authorised or required to be used for the purpose of Consignia Holdings plc or, if the postal administration of the country in which the order is issued so allows, a current stamp for denoting a rate of postage of that country, but no other stamps may be used. If a stamp is affixed in contravention of the provisions of this paragraph, no payment shall be made by or on behalf of Consignia Holdings plc in respect of that stamp."

14th March 2001

Jonathan Evans, on behalf of Consignia Holdings plc
(a person authorised by Consignia Holdings plc to act in that behalf).

Trust Deed for Creditors by

JACQUELINE ELIZABETH ALEXANDER

A Trust Deed has been granted by Jacqueline Elizabeth Alexander, 44 Whitebridge Avenue, Abercorn Estate, Paisley, PA3 3BS on 7th March 2001 conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me Neil J McNeill, Chartered Accountant, BDO Stoy Hayward, Ballantine House, 168 West George Street, Glasgow as Trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

Trust Deed for Creditors by

VIVIENNE DIGGINS

A Trust Deed has been granted by Vivienne Diggins, 9 Kilncroft Court, Newbridge Drive, Dumfries DG2 0HL on 7th March 2001 conveying (to the extent specified in Section 5(4A) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985) her estate to me Eileen Blackburn, HLB Kidsons, Breckenridge House, 274 Sauchiehall Street, Glasgow, G2 3EH as Trustee for the benefit of her creditors generally.

If a creditor wishes to object to the trust deed for the purposes of preventing it becoming a protected trust deed (see notes below on the objections required for that purpose) notification of such objection must be delivered in writing to the Trustee within 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.

Notes: The trust deed will become a protected trust deed unless within the period of 5 weeks of the date of publication of this Notice in The Edinburgh Gazette a majority in number or not less than one third in value of the creditors notify the Trustee in writing that they object to the trust deed and do not wish to accede to it. The effect of this is that paragraphs 6 and 7 of Schedule 5 to the Act will apply to the trust deed. Briefly, this has the effect of restricting the rights of non-acceding creditors to do diligence (ie to enforce court decrees for unpaid debts) against the debtor and confers certain protection upon the trust deed from being superseded by the sequestration of the debtor's estate.
