These lands are partly feudal and partly King's feud-land, holding of the Crown for a trifling duty of 5s. Scots yearly. The duties, formerly payable to Lord Dundas, were acquired by Mr Robertson from his Lordship. The titles are produced in the above-mentioned process; and application for particulars as to rental, &c. may be made to Mr Gilbert Duncan, writer in Lerwick, factor on the estate; or to Charles Steuart, W. S.

The tenants will shew the lands, and point out the boundaries.

Price Sevenpence.
