FROM TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, TO FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1818.

HERALD'S-COLLEGE—NOVEMBER 19, 1818.

The Deputy Earl Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

In pursuance of the commands of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, these are to give public notice, that upon the present melancholy occasion of the death of Her late Majesty of blessed memory, all persons do put themselves into deep mourning.

HENRY HOWARD MOLYNEUX-HOWARD, Deputy Earl Marshal.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 18th of November 1818,

PRESENT,

Archbishop of Canterbury,

Lord President,

Duke of Montrose,

Lord Steward,

Earl Bathurst,

Earl of Liverpool,

Viscount Melville,

Viscount Sidmouth,

Bishop of London,

Lord St Helens,

Sir William Scott,

Sir John Nicholl,

Mr Chancellor of the Exchequer,

Lord Chief Baron.

Whereas in the Act of Uniformity, which establishes the Liturgy of the Church of England, provision is made for such alterations in the prayers for the Royal Family, as from time to time shall become necessary, and be directed by lawful authority. It is thereupon this day ordered in Council, that in the Morning and Evening Prayers, in the Litany, and in all other parts of the Public Service, as well in the occasional offices as in the Book of Common Prayer, where the Royal Family is appointed to be particularly prayed for, the following form and order shall be observed, viz.

Their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

Price Seven pence.

And it is further ordered, that no edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth printed, but with this amendment; and that in the meantime, till copies of such edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, within this realm, do (for preventing of mistakes) with the pen, correct and amend all such prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing direction; and for the better notice hereof, that this order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several parishes; and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

CHETWYND.

In pursuance of an act passed in the 10th year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, and of another act passed in the 32d year of his present Majesty, wherein provision is made for praying for the Royal Family in that part of Great Britain called Scotland; it is hereby ordered in Council, that henceforth every Minister and Preacher shall in his respective Church, Congregation, or Assembly, pray in express words,

For his Most Sacred Majesty King George, their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

Of which all persons concerned are hereby required to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

CHETWYND.

HORSE-GUARDS—NOVEMBER 20, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, does not require that the Officers of the Army should wear any other mourning with their uniforms, on the present melancholy occasion, than black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword knot, and on the left arm, with the following exceptions, viz.

Officers on duty are to wear black gloves, black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword knot, and on the left arm; the sash covered with black crape; black gorget ribbon, and a black crape scarf over the right shoulder.

The drums are to be covered with black, and black crape is to be hung from the pike of the colour-staff of infantry, and from the standard-staff and trumpets of cavalry.

When Officers appear at Court in their uniforms, they are to wear black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword knot, and on the left arm; a black crape scarf over the right shoulder; black waistcoat, breeches, stockings, and buckles.

By command of his Royal Highness the Commander in Chief.

HARRY CALVERT, Adjutant-General.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—NOVEMBER 20, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, does not require that the Officers of the Fleet should wear any other mourning on the present melancholy occasion, with their undress uniforms, than black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword knots; nor with their dress uniforms, than black gloves, and black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword knots; except at Court, when they are to wear also black waistcoats, breeches, stockings, and buckles: nor that the Officers of the Royal Marines should wear any other mourning with their uniforms, than black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword knots; except on duty, when they are to wear also black gloves, and the sash covered with black, black gorget ribbons, and black crape scarfs over their right shoulders; and except at Court, when they are to wear black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword knots, black crape scarfs over their right shoulders, and black waistcoats, breeches, stockings, and buckles.

The drums of the Royal Marines are to be covered with black, and a black crape is to be hung from the pike of the divisional colour-staff.

By his Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

Whereas by an act, passed in the fifty-first year of his Majesty's reign, intituled "An act to provide for the administration of the royal authority, and for the care of his Majesty's royal person during the continuance of his Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the exercise of the royal authority by his Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if her Majesty the Queen should depart this life during the time that the care of his Majesty's royal person should be committed to her Majesty, according to the provisions of the said act, the Regent should forthwith order and direct a proclamation, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be issued and published declaring the same: and whereas by another act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An act, to alter and amend certain of the provisions of an act, passed in the fifty-first year of his Majesty's reign, intituled, "An act, to provide for the administration of the royal authority, and for the care of his Majesty's royal person during the continuance of his Majesty's illness, and for the resumption of the royal authority by his Majesty;" it was amongst other things enacted, that if the case should happen in which it was enacted by the said act, passed in the fifty-first year of his Majesty, that the Regent should forthwith order and direct such proclamation to be issued and published as aforesaid, and the same should happen upon or after the day appointed by any writ of summons then issued, for calling and assembling a new Parliament, and before such new Parliament should have met and sat as a Parliament, then, and in such case, the Regent should forthwith cause such a Proclamation as aforesaid to be issued and published, declaring that such case had happened, and requiring the new Parliament either to convene and sit at Westminster immediately after such Proclamation should have been published, or upon some day to be mentioned in such proclamation, and being within sixty days to be computed from the date of the said proclamation; and in such case the Parliament so convening and sitting should be, and be deemed a Parliament to all intents and purposes, under the provisions of the said last mentioned acts: and whereas the Parliament which was summoned to meet at Westminster on the fourth day of August last, hath not yet met and sat as a Parliament, but stands prorogued to the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing: and whereas her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, during the time that the care of his Majesty's royal person was committed to her Majesty: now we do hereby by this Proclamation (ordered and directed to be issued and published, and issued and published under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland), declare that her Majesty the Queen departed this life on the seventeenth day of November instant, and we do, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, by and with the advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, publish, declare, and require, that the new Parliament shall be held, convene, and sit, at Westminster, on the fourteenth day of January now next ensuing, for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly on the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and we do hereby further publish and declare, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, and by and with the advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, that the said Parliament shall on the twenty-ninth day of December now next ensuing, be further prorogued to the said fourteenth day of January now next ensuing; and we have, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, given order to the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a writ patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, for proroguing the same accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton House, this nineteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, in the fifty-ninth year of his Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

WILLIAM HEWAT, Grocer in Edinburgh. NOTICE is hereby given, that the said William Hewat, with the necessary concurrence, made an application to the Court of Session, praying their Lordships to approve of the composition made by him at a general meeting of his Creditors upon the 27th day of October last, of 4s. 6d. in the pound, payable, in equal divisions, at three and six months from the date of the decree of approval by the Court of Session, and of Alexander Wilson, residing at Meadowfield, near Edinburgh, as his cautioner; and to find and declare the Trustee exonerated of his intrusions, and the said William Hewat discharged of all debts due or contracted by him prior to the date of the sequestration, and to pronounce the other orders required by the statute.—Which application the Court this day ordered to be intimated, in terms of the act of parliament.

JOHN YOUNG, Jr. Agent.

Edinburgh, November 26, 1818.

TO THE HEIRS OF ENTAIL OF
 The late FRANCIS GARDEN of Troup, Esquire, one of the Senators of the College of Justice in Scotland, INTIMATION is hereby given, that an Act of Parliament having been obtained, vesting certain parts of the barony of Pitsligo, in the county of Aberdeen, comprised in a deed of entail executed by Francis Garden of Troup, Esquire, deceased, in Trustees, to be sold, and for applying the purchase-money in the acquisition of other estates, to be settled upon the same series of heirs; and under the conditions and limitations contained in the said deed of entail. And the Trustees having, accordingly, disposed of the lands vested in them at the price of $2,000. sterling, applied by petition to the Court of Session, (Second Division), for authority to reinvest the price in the purchase of certain parts of the lands of Northfield, and of the lands of Cuslinie and others, which are in the immediate vicinity of the entailed estate of Troup, and to which Francis Garden Campbell of Troup and Glenlyon, Esquire, the heir of entail at present in possession, has right in fee-simple.—The Court, upon considering the petition, with certain relative procedure, did, by interlocutor dated the 21st day of November current, remit to Lord CRINGLETIE, Ordinary, with power to order the proceedings to be intimated by delivery of copies thereof to as many of the substitute heirs of entail, and their tutors and curators, as he should think necessary, and to all and sundry by the Minute-Book, affixing copies on the Walls of the Inner and Outer House, and by notice in the Edinburgh Gazette; and thereafter, and failing appearance for the heirs of entail, with power to the Lord Ordinary to appoint an agent of experience in such matters to attend to the interest of the entailed estate, by employing counsel, and requiring proof of the value of the lands proposed to be settled, and burdens affecting the same, examining the title-deeds, searching the records for encumbrances, revising the new entail, seeing the same properly executed, recorded in the register of entails, and completed by infestment, and to order payment to be made to such agent for his trouble out of the fund in medio, and to report to the Court.—Of all which intimation is hereby given, in terms of an interlocutor pronounced by Lord CRINGLETIE, of this date: And farther, that the cause will be again moved in Court, before his Lordship, upon Friday the 15th day of January next, with continuation of days.
 ROBINSON & PATERSON, W. S. Agents for the Trustees, and for Francis Garden Campbell, Esq.
 Edinburgh, November 27, 1818.
