HERALD'S-COLLEGE—NOVEMBER 19, 1818.

The Deputy Earl Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for Her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

In pursuance of the commands of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, these are to give public notice, that upon the present melancholy occasion of the death of Her late Majesty of blessed memory, all persons do put themselves into deep mourning.

HENRY HOWARD MOLYNEUX-HOWARD, Deputy Earl Marshal.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 18th of November 1818,

PRESENT,

Archbishop of Canterbury,
Lord President,
Duke of Montrose,
Lord Steward,
Earl Bathurst,
Earl of Liverpool,
Viscount Melville,
Viscount Sidmouth,
Bishop of London,
Lord St Helens,
Sir William Scott,
Sir John Nicholl,
Mr Chancellor of the Exchequer,
Lord Chief Baron.

Whereas in the Act of Uniformity, which establishes the Liturgy of the Church of England, provision is made for such alterations in the prayers for the Royal Family, as from time to time shall become necessary, and be directed by lawful authority. It is thereupon this day ordered in Council, that in the Morning and Evening Prayers, in the Litany, and in all other parts of the Public Service, as well in the occasional offices as in the Book of Common Prayer, where the Royal Family is appointed to be particularly prayed for, the following form and order shall be observed, viz.

Their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

Price Seven pence.

And it is further ordered, that no edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth printed, but with this amendment; and that in the meantime, till copies of such edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, within this realm, do (for preventing of mistakes) with the pen, correct and amend all such prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing direction; and for the better notice hereof, that this order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several parishes; and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

CHETWYND.

In pursuance of an act passed in the 10th year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, and of another act passed in the 32d year of his present Majesty, wherein provision is made for praying for the Royal Family in that part of Great Britain called Scotland; it is hereby ordered in Council, that henceforth every Minister and Preacher shall in his respective Church, Congregation, or Assembly, pray in express words,

For his Most Sacred Majesty King George, their Royal Highnesses George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

Of which all persons concerned are hereby required to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

CHETWYND.

HORSE-GUARDS—NOVEMBER 20, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, does not require that the Officers of the Army should wear any other mourning with their uniforms, on the present melancholy occasion, than black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword knot, and on the left arm, with the following exceptions, viz.

Officers on duty are to wear black gloves, black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword knot, and on the left arm; the sash covered with black crape; black gorget ribbon, and a black crape scarf over the right shoulder.

The drums are to be covered with black, and black crape is to be hung from the pike of the colour-staff of infantry, and from the standard-staff and trumpets of cavalry.

When Officers appear at Court in their uniforms, they are to wear black crape over the ornamental part of the cap or hat, the sword knot, and on the left arm; a black crape scarf over the right shoulder; black waistcoat, breeches, stockings, and buckles.

By command of his Royal Highness the Commander in Chief.

HARRY CALVERT, Adjutant-General.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—NOVEMBER 20, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, does not require that the Officers of the Fleet should wear any other mourning on the present melancholy occasion, with their undress uniforms, than black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword knots; nor with their dress uniforms, than black gloves, and black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword knots; except at Court, when they are to wear also black waistcoats, breeches, stockings, and buckles: nor that the Officers of the Royal Marines should wear any other mourning with their uniforms, than black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword knots; except on duty, when they are to wear also black gloves, and the sash covered with black, black gorget ribbons, and black crape scarfs over their right shoulders; and except at Court, when they are to wear black crapes on their left arms, hats, and sword knots, black crape scarfs over their right shoulders, and black waistcoats, breeches, stockings, and buckles.

The drums of the Royal Marines are to be covered with black, and a black crape is to be hung from the pike of the divisional colour-staff.
