NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES HECTOR, Merchant in Aberdeen.

JOHN EWING, Advocate in Aberdeen, hereby intimates, that he has been elected Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said James Hector; and that his election has been confirmed by the Court: that the 10th and 20th days of April current have been fixed by the Sheriff of Aberdeenshire for the examination of the bankrupt, within the Laigh Tolbooth of Aberdeen, at 12 o'clock noon each day; and that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held, at the same place and hour, on the 27th current; and another general meeting of Creditors will be held in the Lemon Tree Tavern, Aberdeen, on 10th May next, for choosing Commissioners and for the other purposes mentioned in the statute.

The Trustee hereby requires those Creditors who have not already done so, to produce and lodge with him, their claims of debt, vouchers and oaths of verity, betwixt and the first-mentioned meeting of Creditors; with certification that those failing to do so betwixt and the 20th day of April next, will have no share of the first dividend of the bankrupt's estate.

Aberdeen, March 31, 1819.

PLEASANCE BREWING COMPANY, DUNDEE.

NOTICE.

IN an action of declarator brought before the Lords of Council and Session at the instance of James Anderson, only son of the deceased Ebenezer Anderson, merchant in Dundee, pursuer, a partner of the company carrying on the business of Malting and Brewing at the Pleasance, near Dundee, under the firm of the Pleasance Brewing Company, against the other partners of the said company, proceeding on the ground of the said James Anderson's indisposition, and that he was no longer able to continue a partner of said company, to which action the defenders were duly cited as parties upon the 21st day of October 1818, the Lord GILLES, Ordinary, before whom the said action came to depend, pronounced an interlocutor, dated the 8th and signed the 10th days of December last, in the following words.—“ Finds and declares, that the pursuer ceased to be a member of the Pleasance Brewing Company as on the day of last, being the date of given citation to the defenders in the present action; and authorizes John Yule, writer to the signet, his tutor ad litem, to insert notices twice in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, and Edinburgh Evening Courant and Caledonian Mercury, and once in each of the two newspapers published in Dundee, announcing that the pursuer ceased to be a partner of the said company at the above date.” And to this interlocutor his Lordship was pleased to adhere by another interlocutor pronounced by him, and dated the 11th day of March 1819.

In obedience to these interlocutors, I, therefore, hereby announce, that the before-designed James Anderson ceased to be a partner of the Pleasance Brewing Company, Dundee, on the 21st day of October 1818.—Of which all concerned are hereby required to take notice.

JOHN YULE.

UPSET FEU-DUTIES REDUCED.

ADJOURNED ROUP OF BUILDING GROUND AT INVERLEITH.

There will be feued, by Public Auction, upon Wednesday the 21st day of April 1819, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, at one o'clock afternoon, in virtue of an Act of Parliament, at the reduced rate of 30l. per English acre of yearly feu-duty.

SEVEN LOTS OF LAND fronting the Queensferry road, immediately to the west of Stockbridge, being part of the lands and estate of Inverleith. Each lot measures about 1 rood 5 poles & yards of ground English measure, and one dwelling-house only is to be built upon each lot. By the terms of the charters, all sorts of nuisance are prohibited; and the feuars will be taken bound to adhere to a general plan.

The lands are beyond the bounds of police, and are free from the taxes of the city of Edinburgh. There is plenty of water on the ground, and a sufficient fall for drains. The feu-duties at which the lots are to be exposed are moderate, and the amount of the city taxes which will be saved upon each house will be nearly equal to the whole feu-duty. From the extent of land in each lot, each house will have a garden sufficient for the supply of a family.

The articles of roup and plan may be seen on applying to John Ker, W. S., 21, Thistle Street, or to Thomas Brown, architect, 7, Hill Place, Nicolson Square.
