TO THE CREDITORS OF
COCKBURN & BAIRD, Millwrights, Edinburgh, and David Cockburn and William Baird, the individual partners thereof.

At a meeting of the Creditors of the said Cockburn & Baird held on the 19th January instant, the said William Baird made offer of a composition of 9s in the pound upon the debts due by Cockburn & Baird, and him as an individual, payable in one month from the date of the decree of the Court of Session approving of the same, with satisfactory security for payment thereof; and the meeting being of opinion that the offer, with the security proposed, was fair and reasonable, and ought to be acceded to, the Trustee, as directed, hereby intimates, that another meeting of the Creditors will be held within John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon Friday the 11th day of February next, at two o'clock afternoon, finally to decide upon the said offer.

The Trustee, at same time, intimates, that there will be no dividend to the individual Creditors of David Cockburn.

JOHN BROWN, Trustee.

ADVERTISEMENT.

WHEREAS by an order of the High Court of Chancery made in a certain cause in which ANN JAMIESON and others are plaintiffs, and JOHN MACKINTOSH and others are defendants, it was referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the masters of the said Court; to inquire whether the child of William Jamieson, the Brother of Ann Macklerath, widow, the testatrix, in the said order mentioned, be living or dead, and, if dead, when he died. All persons who can give any information as to the facts in question are requested forthwith to transmit the same to the said master at his chambers in Southampton Buildings, London. The said testatrix resided at Brompton, in the parish of Gillingham, in the county of Kent; and her said brother, William Jamieson, who was born at Glasgow in 1723, went to Jamaica, where he married and died, leaving a widow and a son, who both came to England after his death, and have not been heard of since.

DOSIE and THOMAS, plaintiffs solicitors,
Bouverie Street, Fleet Street, London.
