FIRST NOTICE.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The deceased SIR JOHN BUCHANAN RIDDELL, of Riddell, Bart.

IN the action of Sale and Ranking raised at the instance of SIR WALTER BUCHANAN RIDDELL, Bart., eldest lawful Son and Heir-Apparent of the said Sir John Buchanan Riddell, and LIEUTENANT-COLONEL HENRY JAMES RIDDELL of Besborough, his tutor-at-law, for his interest, with concurrence of his Majesty's Advocate, for his Majesty's interest, against the next heirs of the said Sir John Buchanan Riddell, and all and sundry his Creditors, LORD PITMILLY, Ordinary, by his interlocutor of date the 12th day of February 1820, appointed intimation to be made in the Minute-Book for the whole Creditors of the said deceased Sir John Buchanan Riddell to produce all claims, rights, and diligences, with oaths of verity thereon, in the clerk's hands (F. S. Manners) within ten days, with certification.—Of which notice is hereby given to all concerned.

JOHN MUIR, Carter at Helenville, near Parkhead.

WILLIAM CURRIE, Timber-Merchant in Glasgow, as Trustee for the said Creditors, having, by advertisement of date the 29th of November last, which was published in the Glasgow Herald of that date, the Glasgow Courier of the 30th of same month, and the Glasgow Chronicle of the 4th December following, requested the said Creditors to lodge with him, or Thomas Marshall, writer, No. 449, Gallowgate, Glasgow, their grounds of debt, and affidavits to the verity thereof, on or before the 9th of January last, in order to a division of the funds on the 5th current; and the Trustee having reason to believe that requisition has not been complied with by all the Creditors, he now intimates to such of them as may have neglected to do so, that unless they lodge their grounds of debt and affidavits by the 24th of March next, the whole of the funds realized, and which completely exhausts the subject, will thereafter be divided among the Creditors who have complied with the requisition. Glasgow, February 21, 1820.
