NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The MERCHANT BANKING COMPANY OF STIRLING, and individual partners thereof.

THE Trustee hereby calls a meeting of the Creditors of the Merchant Banking Company of Stirling, and of the individual partners thereof, to be held within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Monday the 13th day of March next, at one o'clock P. M., for the purpose of directing the future procedure of the Trustee on the different points brought forward, but not finally disposed of, at the last statutory meeting of the Creditors held on the 27th December 1819; and particularly to receive a report by the Commissioners on the subject of the claim upon the estate of Andrew Bartholomew, and finally to dispose of the motions made at the above meeting in relation to a remuneration to the Commissioners, and bestowing some pecuniary aid upon William Meikle, one of the bankrupts.

February 23, 1820.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES ROBERTSON of Glentyre, late Merchant in Perth.

JOHN CAMPBELL, Tertius, Writer to the Signet, Trustee on the said sequestrated estate, hereby intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held within his chambers, No. 59, George Street, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 22d day of March next, at two o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of giving directions to the Trustee with regard to the disposal of part of the bankrupt's estate, and the propriety of letting part of the landed property on a 19 years lease, previous to exposing it to sale.

Edinburgh, February 25, 1820.

INTIMATION TO CREDITORS.

IT is requested that all who have claims against the deceased ROBERT MUDIE of Muir will lodge the same, with the vouchers, and an oath of verity, if not already lodged, with Mr Andrew Hutton, commissary clerk of Stirling, within a month from this date, otherwise they will not obtain a share of the funds under division by the commissary in a process of multiplepointing depending before him.
