By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

Declaring his Majesty's Pleasure touching his Royal Coronation, and the Solemnity thereof.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas we have resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the solemnity of our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the 1st day of August next, at our palace, at Westminster; and forasmuch as by ancient customs and usages, as also in regard of divers tenures of sundry manors, lands, and other hereditaments, many of our loving subjects do claim and are bound to do and perform divers several services on the said day, and at the time of the Coronation, as, in times precedent, their ancestors, and those from whom they claim, have done and performed at the Coronation of our famous progenitors and predecessors; we, therefore, out of our princely care for the preservation of the lawful rights and inheritances of our loving subjects whom it may concern, have thought fit to give notice of and publish our resolutions therein; and we do hereby give notice of and publish the same accordingly: and we do hereby further signify, that by our commission under our great seal of Great Britain, we have appointed and authorized our most dear brothers and faithful counsellors Frederick Duke of York, William Henry Duke of Clarence, Augustus Frederick Duke of Sussex; our most dear cousin and faithful counsellor William Frederick Duke of Gloucester; our most dear cousin and faithful counsellor Prince Leopold of Saxe Coburg; the Most Reverend Father in God our right trusty and right entirely-beloved counsellor Charles Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan; our right trusty and well-beloved counsellor John Lord Eldon, our Chancellor of Great Britain; our right trusty and right well-beloved cousins and counsellors Dudley Earl of Harrowby, President of our Council; John Earl of Westmorland, Keeper of our Privy Seal; our right trusty and right entirely-beloved cousins and counsellors John Duke of Atholl; James Duke of Montrose, Master of our Horse; Arthur Duke of Wellington, Master-General of our Ordnance;
