CARLTON-HOUSE—JUNE 6, 1820.

This day his Majesty proceeded in state from Carlton-House to the House of Peers, where he arrived at a quarter before two o'clock; and having alighted from the state-coach, he was received at the portico by the great officers and others, and proceeded to the robing room in the customary manner; his Majesty was there robed, his hat on his head, and the procession moved into the house in the usual order.

His Majesty being seated on the throne, the great officers and others standing on the right and left, Thomas Tyrwhitt, Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to give his Royal assent to

An act for the support of his Majesty's household and of the honour and dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.
And to several English acts and one private act.
