

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, JULY 18, TO FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1820.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION,
For adjourning the Solemnity of the Coronation of his Majesty.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas by our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the 6th day of May last, we did (amongst other things) publish and declare our royal intention to celebrate the solemnity of our Royal Coronation upon Tuesday the 1st day of August next, at our Palace at Westminster; and whereas for divers weighty reasons us thereunto moving, we have thought fit to adjourn the said solemnity until our royal will and pleasure shall be further signified thereon, we do by this our Royal Proclamation give notice thereof; and we do hereby further signify to all our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons of what quality or rank soever they be, who either upon our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices or tenures or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of such Coronation, are discharged from their attendance on Tuesday the 1st day of August next.

Given at our Court at Carlton-House, this 12th day of July 1820, and in the 1st year of our reign.

GOD save the KING.
