NOTICE

TO THE HEIRS OF ENTAIL OF

The late JOHN MAXWELL, Esquire, of Munshes.
 THE Heirs of Entail of John Maxwell of Munshes are desired to appear before the Lord President of the Court of Session, the Lord Justice Clerk, the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, the Lord Chief Commissioner of the Jury Court, and the Senior Judge of the Court of Session in Scotland, for the time being, (other than the Lord President or Lord Justice Clerk), or any two of them, on Saturday the 17th day of March next, at one o'clock afternoon, within the Lord President's Chambers, Hill Street, Edinburgh, where they will be heard for their interest on a petition presented to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled by Mrs Clementina Herries Maxwell of Munshes, and John Herries Maxwell, Esquire, her husband, on behalf of themselves and their children, praying for leave to bring in a bill for authority to sell such parts of the estates of Munshes, Dinwoodie, Terraughty, and others, situated in the stewartry of Kirkeudbright and county of Dumfries, entailed by the said John Maxwell, Esquire, deceased, as shall be sufficient for payment of the debts and provisions, and other sums which affect or may be made to affect the said entailed estate.
 Edinburgh, February 17, 1821.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES RANKINE, Merchant in Cowgate of Dundee.
 AT a meeting of the Creditors of the said James Rankine held on the 21st current, he made offer of 6s 8d. in the pound, payable at 6, 12, and 18 months; which the meeting considered fair and reasonable; and directed the Trustee to call a meeting to take the same into consideration, with or without amendment. A meeting is hereby called for the above purpose, to take place within the writing-chambers of David Smith, writer in Dundee, on Wednesday the 14th March 1821.

THIRD NOTICE—FIRST TERM.

IN the action of Declarator and Ranking and Sale at the instance of ANDREW M'KEAN, writing-master in the High School of Edinburgh, with concurrence of Sir William Rae, Bart. his Majesty's Advocate, for his Majesty's interest, against JAMES KNOX, sometime Tenant in the lands and farm of Nether-Lockarwoods; William Scott Moncrieff, Esq. accountant in Edinburgh, Trustee, and others, Creditors of the said James Knox, Lord PITMILLY, Ordinary, (F. S. Manners, clerk), by interlocutor, of this date, assigned a term to the whole Creditors to produce their claims, rights, and diligences against the bankrupt or his estate, with certification as in a reduction and improbaton; and also assigned a term for the Creditors deponing on the verity of their debts; and granted commission to the judge ordinary, or to any of his Majesty's justices of peace within whose bounds the Creditors reside, for taking the respective Creditors oaths, to be reported at said term; with certification, that no Creditor shall be ranked until he shall have made oath to the verity of his debt.
 February 7, 1821.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The deceased DR JAMES CRICHTON, Minister of Holywood, and MRS ANNA M'MILLAN or CRICHTON, his widow.

SECOND NOTICE—SECOND TERM.

IN the Process of Ranking and Sale raised and pursued before the Lords of Council and Session at the instance of Robert Stott, tenant in Caldons, against the Heirs, Representatives, and Creditors of the said deceased Dr James Crichton and others, the Lord GILLIES, Ordinary to the said process, by an interlocutor dated 23d February current, assigned the 1st sederunt day in May next to the whole Creditors of the bankrupt to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences competent to them respectively against the bankrupt or his estate, and whole vouchers thereof; and that for the second term; with certification, that what writs shall not be produced shall be held as false and forged, in so far as they may affect the bankrupts estate; and the interests of the Creditors thereon, who have produced or shall produce their rights and diligences affecting the same.—Of which this notice is given to all concerned.
 February 29, 1821.

F. S. PAINGLE, Clerk.
