ROBINSON & PATRICKSON, W. S.

NOTICE

TO THE HEIRS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF

The deceased WILLIAM RITCHIE, formerly of Kingston-upon-Hull, and afterwards residing at Fountain Bridge, Edinburgh.

IN a Process of Multiplepoinding and Exoneration at the instance of Sir William Fettes of Comelybank, Baronet, S. C. Somerville, W. S., and John Mill, merchant in Edinburgh, Trustees and Executors of the said William Ritchie, against WILLIAM and ROBERT GORDON, children procreated between the deceased Ann Jean Ritchie, daughter of the said William Ritchie, and William Gordon, of the city of Edinburgh, her husband, and James Ritchie and Campbell Erskine Fettes Stuart Robertson Ritchie, sons and legatees of the said deceased William Ritchie,—Lord KINCARDINE, acting for Lord MEADOWBANK, by an interlocutor, of this date, appointed the defenders and all concerned to lodge their interests in the clerk's hands, in order to discuss their preferences; and that within ten days: Further, authorized and appointed intimation of the process of multiplepoinding to be made in two of the Edinburgh and London Newspapers, three times in each paper; and also appointed intimation thereof to be made three times in such American papers, as the pursuer should see fit, and likewise in the Minute-Book. Edinburgh, June 19, 1822.

By trust-deed and settlement, dated 21st May 1801, the said William Ritchie bequeathed certain sums of money to James Ritchie, his eldest son, then alive, and to Campbell Erskine Fettes Stuart Robertson Ritchie, his second son, payable to them and the heirs of their bodies on the death of his widow, by whom his property was liferented. The said James and Campbell Ritchie are supposed to have gone abroad as sailors, and have not been heard of for many years. In addition to the intimation above given, in terms of the interlocutor of the Lord Ordinary, notice is hereby given, that application may be made for further information by the said James and Campbell Ritchies, or by their lawful children, to Samuel Charters Somerville, W. S., 69, Great King Street, Edinburgh.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

THE Trustees for the Creditors of MR JAMES AUSTIN, sometime Bank-Agent in Montrose, having now realized the whole of the trust-funds, hereby intimate, that a state of the affairs and ranking will lie in the office of George Beattie, writer in Montrose, the agent for the Trustees, from the 10th to the 31st day of July next, for the inspection of all concerned: And they farther intimate to such of the Creditors as have not lodged claims, with oaths to the verity thereof, that unless they do so in the hands of the said George Beattie on or before the said 10th day of July next, they will be entirely cut off from all share of the final division, which will take place on the said 31st day of July next. Montrose, June 19, 1822.
