NOTICE

TO HEIRS OF ENTAIL.

NOTICE is hereby given to the heirs of entail of the estate of Wemyss and Methill, and others, entailed by the late James Earl of Wemyss, to appear before the Lord President of the Court of Session, the Lord Justice-Clerk, the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, the Lord Chief Commissioner of the Jury Court, and the Senior Judge of the Court of Session for the time being, (other than the Lord President or Lord Justice-Clerk), or any two of them, upon Monday the 28th day of April next, within the house of the Lord Justice-Clerk, No. 28, Charlotte Square, at one o'clock afternoon, where they will be heard for their interest, upon a petition presented to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, by James Wemyss of Wemyss, Esquire, Captain in his Majesty's Navy, William Wemyss, Esquire, Lieutenant-Colonel in his Majesty's service, and Charles Wemyss, Esquire, Lieutenant in his Majesty's Navy, praying for leave to bring in a bill for selling the said entailed estate of Wemyss and Methill, and others, or such parts thereof, as can be disposed of with the least injury or inconvenience, and for applying the proceeds thereof to the payment and discharge of the debts which affect or may be made to affect the said entailed estate.

Edinburgh, March 27, 1823.

TO CREDITORS.

A STATE of the affairs of WILLIAM WELSH, Bookseller in Aberdeen, lies at the office of Mr Copland, Advocate there, for the inspection of all concerned; and a dividend will be paid, on all the claims on said estate, which are properly vouched and lodged with him before the 25th current. The present dividend will include almost all the sums due him, which are recovered, or at present likely to be so; and, therefore, all those having demands against him, who have not yet made any claim, are requested to do so, without delay, as otherwise they must be excluded from the present division.
