JUDICIAL SALE OF THE ESTATE OF KIRKMICHAEL, In the County of Dumfries.

To be exposed to SALE, by public roup, within the Parliament or New Session House of Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 12th day of November next, between the hours of two and four o'clock afternoon,

THE LANDS and BARONIES of KIRKMICHAEL, lately belonging to William Hishby, Esq. comprehending the TEN MERK LAND of KIRKMICHAEL, the LANDS of GLENAE, called WOODS and NEES, and Pertinents, the KIRK LANDS of KIRKMICHAEL, Parts of DALRUSCAN and AUSHINFLOWERHILL, and LANDS of LAMPHITS.

This fine estate is situated in the parish of Kirkmichael, and county of Dumfries, at nearly an equal distance between the towns of Dumfries and Moffat, being about ten miles from each. The post road between these towns passes through the estate, and the well frequented inn of Parkgate on that road stands on the property.

The lands consist in all of about 2443 acres, of which about 1102 are arable, about 1233 pasture, the remainder being under wood, &c.

The arable lands consist chiefly of excellent dry loam, fit for all the usual rotations of crop. They are divided into several farms, which are mostly well inclosed, and the farm steadings and offices are suitable and substantial. The pasture is of the best description of hill farms. The whole estate lies compactly together, and there is a considerable quantity both of fine old and of thriving young wood on it. The river Ae, which is an excellent trouting stream, partly bounds the estate on the west and south, and the game on it is abundant. The lands have almost throughout a southern aspect, and abound in fine situations for building.

The estate holds chiefly of the Crown, and affords a Freehold Qualification. The lands called Woods and Nees are held of a subject superior for payment of an elusory feu-duty; and the entry of heirs and singular successors is taxed. The teinds are valued and nearly exhausted.

The rental by the existing leases amounts to L. 1763 17s. 5d.

The estate has farther been recently valued on oath by two gentlemen of respectability and experience in the valuation of land, and they depone that, on leases of 19 years endurance from Whitsunday last, the lands are well worth a yearly rent of L. 1477 11s. 10d. The stipend and public burdens amount to about L. 90. The wood upon the estate has been separately valued by persons of skill at L. 4901 18s. 5d. The Court of Session has fixed L. 39,622 1s. 10d. 8-12ths as the upset price of the property.

The articles of roup, and printed copies of the memorial and abstract, are in the hands of Mr William Pringle, Depute-Clerk of Session, clerk to the process of sale. The title-deeds, with copies of the memorial and abstract, and a plan of the estate, are in the hands of William Renny, W. S. 16, Royal Circus, Edinburgh, the common agent; to whom, or to Messrs Gordon and Harkness, writers in Dumfries, application may be made for farther particulars. William McClure, at Parkgate, will shew the lands.
