NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN CLARK, Junior, Merchant, Inverness.

ROBERT MURRAY, accountant in Inverness, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Clark, Junior, hereby gives notice, that his accounts have been examined and audited by the Commissioners, as directed by the statute, preparatory to a second dividend; and that he has been directed to make up a supplementary or equalizing scheme of division among such Creditors as did not lodge their claims with oaths of verity, in time to be included in the first scheme of division, but who have since done so; and the Trustee farther hereby gives notice, that the states and schemes, with the states and reports submitted to the commissioners at the end of every three months, shall be open for inspection of the Creditors, or their agents, in his hands, till 13th February, being 18 months from the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, and that, on 14th February, the said equalizing dividend will be paid.

The Trustee farther gives notice, that after payment of the equalizing dividend, there will remain no funds in his hands for a second dividend to the Creditors.
