TO THE CREDITORS OF

ARCHIBALD LAWRIE, Upholsterer in Edinburgh.

AT a general meeting of the Creditors, held on the 3d February current, the said Archibald Lawrie made offer of a composition of 1s. per pound upon his debts, payable at twelve months from the date of the approval thereof by the Court, with caution to the satisfaction of the Creditors present; which offer the meeting considered reasonable, and appointed another meeting of the Creditors to be held within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Friday the 27th day of February current, at one o'clock afternoon, to decide on the said offer,—when the Creditors are requested to attend.

GEORGE TODD, Jun. Agent.

Edinburgh, February 5, 1824.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN PATERSON, Merchant in Stirling.

AT a meeting of the said John Paterson's Creditors, held upon the 4th day of February current, being the day after his second examination, he made an offer of composition on his whole debts, with caution; which offer the meeting unanimously thought just and reasonable, and being satisfied with the cautions, they recommended to the Trustee to call another meeting to decide upon the offer. The Trustee therefore hereby intimates, that another meeting will be held within M'Pherson's coffeehouse in Stirling, on Saturday the 28th day of February current, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of deciding on the said offer, with or without amendment; of all which notice is hereby given, in terms of the statute.

Stirling, February 5, 1824.
