TO THE CREDITORS OF

GIBB & MUIR, Merchants, and Warehousemen in Glasgow, and Andrew Gibb, and John Muir, the individual partners of said concern.

MR. JOHN FRAZER, the Trustee, hereby intimates, that at a meeting held on the 20th May current, the Bankrupt, Andrew Gibb, offered a composition on the debts due by the said company, and by himself as an individual, at the date of the sequestration, with security, besides paying the Trustee's commission and whole expenses, and the Bankrupt John Muir, made offer of a composition on the debts due by him as an individual, which several offers, the meeting agreed to entertain as reasonable, and another meeting is to be held in the writing chambers of Mr. John Ferguson, writer, 71, Hutcheson Street, on Tuesday the 15th day of June proximo, at 11 o'clock A. M. for deciding on said offers, with or without amendment.

Glasgow, May 20, 1824.

Price Sevenpence.

Day of Sale Fixed.

BALTIC COMPACT ESTATE IN FIFE, WITH A FREEHOLD QUALIFICATION, FOR SALE.

To be exposed to Sale, upon Wednesday the 16th day of June next, at two o'clock afternoon, under the authority of the Court of Session, and before the Lord Ordinary of Session, in terms of an Act of Parliament passed in the 5th year of his late Majesty King George III.

THE beautiful compact, and conveniently situated estate of THE CHILLYN, lying in the parish of Kinglisse, and county of Fife, and containing 247 acres Scots or 433 acres English, and thereby, almost all good arable and meadow land. The Mansion-House of Pitche stands on an eminence surrounded with fine old timber, and commands extensive views of all the neighbouring hills and wooded landscape on that side of the county, the Frith of Forth, and opposite coasts of the Lothians, and night, with a little repair, be made a comfortable and convenient residence for a gentleman. The lands abound with game, are of easy access by good roads, in the near neighbourhood of both coal and lime of the best quality, and only about five miles from the royal burgh of Kirkcaldy, where there is a well attended weekly market, for disposing of agricultural produce, and where every necessary for a family may be had; and from which there is frequent communication every day with Edinburgh by the steam-boats. The houses and fences on the estate are substantial and in good repair.

The two farms into which the property is divided are let on improving leases for 19 years, from Martinmas 1820 and 1821, to the old tenants (who were born on the lands, and who are most substantial men of respectability, industry, skill, and capital), at money rents, calculated according to the late depressed state of agriculture, therefore they may be considered as real available rents, and at the termination of the current leases, a rise of rent may be confidently expected from the improvement of the lands under the management of such good tenants. A power is reserved by the lease to the purchaser, to take possession of the Mansion-House, and Mains Farm, should he so incline. In short, a more desirable property is seldom offered to the public.

The lands are valued in the county Cess Books, at £395, 13s. 4d., but the superiority of a part of New Grange, valued in the same books at £18, 10s. will be disposed of by private bargain, and thus afford together more than a Freehold Qualification.

RENTAL OF THE ESTATE.

Mains Farm, entry Martinmas 1820,	£248 0 0
Bowhouse Farm, entry Martinmas 1821,	187 0 0
	£435 0 0

Deduct public burdens not paid by the tenants, calculated by the county fiars, on an average of the three years ending with 1821.

	S. P. L.
1. Feu-duty in oatmeal, 3 1 0 3 at 16s. per boll,	£2 12 9
2. Stipend, money Sterling, 5 14 5 6-12
Meal, 4 2 1 1½ at 16s. per boll	3 13 3 3-12
Barley, 5 0 0 1½ at 18s. per boll,	4 12 11 3-12
3. School salary, money Sterling,	1 3 13-12
		17 16 7 8-12

Take this real (not nominal) free rent of £417: 3: 4d. 4-12, of 30 year's purchase (which for a real rental, according to the present market rate of interest, is not higher than what was 24 years' purchase when the market price of money was five per cent.) the amount is £12,515 0 10
To this add value of wood, £320, and superiority, £398: 13: 4d. 715 13 4

Making the value of the estate, £13,230 14 2
But in order to insure a sale, the whole will be exposed at the very moderate upset price of £11,231: 4: 7d. 6-12 sterling. The lands are long ago valued, and the other public burdens are small. An augmentation of stipend was lately granted to the Minister of Kinglisse, which is not yet allocated, but the additional stipend on Pitlochrie will be very small.

Application for farther particulars may be made to William Murray of Touchadam and Pitlochrie, Esq. the proprietor, at Polmaise by Stirling; or to John Russell, C. S. 95, George Street, Edinburgh, in whose hands are the title-deeds, plan of the estate, and copy articles of roup.
