NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

DAVID LAW, Innkeeper, Coach-Contractor, Farmer, and Cattle-Dealer at Kinross Green.

AT a general meeting of the Creditors of the said David Law, held at Kinross Green on the 1st June current, being fourteen days after the second examination, the Bankrupt made a proposal of composition to his Creditors, and offered caution to the satisfaction of the meeting, and this proposal was unanimously approved of as just and reasonable. John Thomson of Seggie, the Trustee, therefore, hereby intimates, that another general meeting of the Creditors is to be held within Kinross Green Inn, on Saturday the 26th day of June current, at twelve o'clock noon, for the purpose of finally deciding upon said offer or proposal, in terms of the statute.

Seggie, June 2, 1824.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES WALLACE, late Bookseller and Stationer in Beith.

THE Trustees having now realized the funds belonging to the said James Wallace do hereby intimate to those Creditors who have already lodged or who may lodge with Messrs. Kerr and Malcolm, writers, at Glasgow Place, affidavits to the verity of their debts, on or before the 24th day of June current, that the said funds will be divided among them, within the writing office of Messrs. Kerr and Malcolm, on Thursday the 1st day of July 1824 at 10 o'clock P. M.

Gag, June 9, 1824.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

THOMAS FINLAY, late Builder in Elie, Fife.

WILLIAM CRAWFORD, Merchant in Edinburgh, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Thomas Finlay, hereby intimates, that his accounts have been audited by the Commissioners, in terms of the statute; and that the same, with states of the affairs of the Bankrupt, and scheme of division, will lie in the office of D. S. Threshie, W. S. Moray Place, Edinburgh, till the 11th of July next, for the inspection of the Creditors, when a dividend of 2s. 3d. in the pound will be paid.

Edinburgh, June 11, 1824.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN KNOX & SONS, Cotton-Yarn Merchants in Glasgow.

DONALD CUTHBERTSON, accountant in Glasgow, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said John Knox & Sons, hereby intimates, that his accounts have again been audited and approved by the Commissioners, and that a state of the affairs of the Bankrupts, with a scheme of division of the funds recovered, lies in the Trustee's hands for the inspection of all concerned, till Monday the 12th of July next; on which day, at 12 o'clock, the Creditors ranked, or their agents duly authorized, will receive payment of a final dividend at the Trustee's office, No. 165, George Street, on producing their bills, or other vouchers of debt.

Glasgow, June 10, 1824.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The deceased ROBERT M'KEAN of Kirkside, Kilmarnock.

MESSRS. WILLIAM SAMSON and WILLIAM RANKIN, Merchants in Kilmarnock, the acting Trustees under the settlement of the said defunct, having now converted the whole of the properties conveyed to them into money, are desirous to pay those Creditors who have produced claims, properly instructed, and thereafter divide the residue among the children, in terms of the settlement. The Trustees, therefore, give this notice to all those who may have any claim against the said deceased, to lodge the same, with the grounds of debt, and oath of verity thereto, in either of their hands, between and the 29th day of June current, certifying to those who neglect to do so, that they will be cut off from any share of the funds in their hands; and those who have proved their claims will receive payment on Thursday the 1st day of July next, at 11 o'clock forenoon, in the Turf Inn, Kilmarnock, where the Trustees will attend for that purpose.

Kilmarnock, June 2, 1824.
