NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

DUNCAN CARMICHAEL, Merchant and General Agent, Queen Street, Glasgow.

At a meeting held on the 10th day of March 1824, the said Duncan Carmichael, having made a proposal of composition to his Creditors, to pay the sum of sixpence per pound, upon the whole just and lawful debts owing by him at the date of the sequestration of his estate, payable at six months from the date of the said offer of composition being approved of by the Court of Session, and also to pay the whole expences of the sequestration of his estate, and to find security for fulfilment of this offer, David Forrester, merchant in Stirling, the Trustee, hereby intimates, that another general meeting of the Creditors of the said Duncan Carmichael is to be held within the Lyceum Rooms, Glasgow, on Monday the 14th day of March next, at one o'clock P. M. for the purpose of deciding on the said proposal, with or without amendment.

Stirling, February 17, 1825.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES FARQUHAR, Merchant, Fraserburgh.

The Creditors of Mr. Farquhar, who have neglected to lodge their claims, are requested to transmit them, with affidavits, to James Cruickshank, Fraserburgh, or John Milne, Rathen, by Fraserburgh, the Trustees for the Creditors, by the 15th March next, otherwise they will receive no part of the trust-estate, which will be divided soon after that date.

February 16, 1825.

Edinburgh, February 22, 1825.

THE estate and effects, be stable and moveable, real and personal, belonging to ANDREW SMITH, Deper, Arbroath, were this day sequestered by the Court, and the Creditors appointed to meet with the house of John Farquhar, in Arbroath, on Wednesday the 2d day of March next, at one o'clock afternoon, to name an Interim Factor; and, in the same place, and at the same hour, on Friday the 18th of same month, to name a Trustee.

NOTICE

IS hereby given, that in the application to the Lords of Council and Session, for carrying into effect an act passed in the last session of this present parliament, entitled "An act to empower the Judges of the Court of Session to take an account of the debts and burdens affecting, and that may be made to affect the entailed estate of Wemyss, in the counties of Fife and Perth, and to sell the said estate, or such part thereof, as shall be sufficient to discharge the said debts and burdens;" the Lord Maxwell, Ordinary, on the 5th February last, pronounced the following interlocutor.—"The Lord Ordinary having heard the petitioner's procurator, remits to Mr. William Paul, accountant in Edinburgh, to enquire into and take an account of the debts of General William Wemyss, late of Wemyss, deceased, which were owing at the time of his decease, and of the provisions made by him, and the interest which has become due, or may become due, upon the said debts and provisions, and which affect, or may be made to affect the entailed estate of Wemyss, and to ascertain how much of the said debts and provisions do or will remain unsatisfied, after the application of the effects of the said William Wemyss, or any separate estate left by him; and afterwards to make up an exact state thereof, according to the evidence that may be laid before him, and to report quumprimum; farther, appoints the Creditors to lodge states of their debts, with the grounds and vouchers thereof, in the hands of the Clerk (Mr. John Pringle) with oaths of verity thereof, and that within one calendar month from this date; appoints intimation of this Interlocutor to be made by the Minute Book, and once in the Edinburgh Gazette. (Signed) J. H. FORBES."—Of all which intimation is hereby given. Edinburgh, February 22, 1825.

NOTICE.

At a meeting of the Creditors of JAMES ROBERTSON, Junior, Merchant in Dysart, held upon the 18th current, Mr. Robertson made offer of a Composition, which the Creditors present unanimously agreed to accept. The Trustee therefore intimates, in terms of the statute, that another meeting of the Creditors will be held within Low's inn, Kirkcaldy, upon Tuesday the 15th day of March next, at two o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of deciding upon the said offer, with or without amendment. Kirkcaldy, February 21, 1825.
