JUDICIAL SALE

OF THE

LANDS of KILLORN and CAMOQUHILL, in the Counties of PERTH and STIRLING, At Farther Reduced Upset Prices.

To be exposed to Sale, by Public Roup, within the Parliament or New Session-House of Edinburgh, upon Wednesday, the 23d day of May next, 1827, between the Hours of Two and Four afternoon.

I. THE LANDS OF KILLORN, consisting of about 250 acres, Scotch measure, of which 149, or there-by, are arable, 82 are Moss, and the remainder are Pasture, or under Plantations, &c. The arable Grounds are of the best quality of Dry-field and Carse Lands,—are capable of raising every description of Crops,—are subdivided and inclosed,—and occupied by substantial tenants.

The Moss covers, at no great depth, Carse Soil of the richest quality, and being situated immediately on the Banks of the River Forth, and two rivulets running through the property, is capable of being easily floated off, by the mode followed so successfully at Blair-Drummond. Expensive Works, prepared for the purpose, have for some time been in use, and Valuable Land has already been cleared.

The property lies within two miles of the Town of Kippen; about ten west from Stirling, on the Great Turnpike Road from that Town to Dumbarton, which runs through the Lands, and is bounded on the north by the River Forth. It lies in a rich, picturesque, and beautiful neighbourhood;—is well wooded, and presents several fine situations for Building. The Farm Steadings are complete, and the Buildings on the property, including extensive modern slate-roofed offices for a mansion-house, are valuable. There is also an inclosed garden, of an acre and a half in extent, well stocked with fruit trees, &c.

Nearly 40 acres of the Dry-field Land, lying round the hamlet of Looning-Foot, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, are well adapted for being feued out for building. There is a good Free-Stone Quarry, within a few yards of the Road, on the property, and the proprietor has a prescriptive right to Quarry and cart Free-Stone from part of the Moor of Kippen.

There are heritable rights to the teinds; and the Lands are held in part of the Crown, and in part of subject superiors. Being situated partly in Stirlingshire and partly in Perthshire, and possessing upwards of £100 Scots valuation in each, they entitle the proprietor to be a Commissioner of Supply, &c. in each of these Counties. The feu-duty and public burdens amount to £27:18:0, or thereby.

By the existing leases, the rental amounts to £307:8s. the tenants also paying nearly the whole of the public burdens; but the lands are low rented, and have been valued on oath by two persons of skill, as worth £361:5s. on a nineteen years lease, without taking into view the Moss Lands above mentioned, the Growing Wood, and a number of houses and extra buildings on the Lands, which are at present separately let, and the rents of which exceed £20. The upset price of the property has been reduced by the Court of Session to £10,000, being less than Twenty-Four years purchase of the Free-estimated yearly value, after deducting the burdens, but adding the value of the Moss Lands, Extra Buildings, and Growing Woods.

II.—Those parts of CAMOQUHILL, called MOLLENDOWS and HALLTOWN, lying in the Parish of Balfour and Shire of Stirling. They consist of about 82 Scotch acres, of which about 69 are Arable. They are subdivided and inclosed, and there is a suitable Farm-Steading on the property. They are rented on a short lease, below their real value, at £70; but have been valued as worth £82:7s. on a lease of 19 years.

The Lands lie compactly near the thriving village of Balfour, and about an equal distance from Glasgow, and Stirling.

There is an heritable right to the teinds of this property, which is held of a subject superior, for payment of a trifling feu-duty.

The public burdens amount to £4:4:6, or thereby. The upset price of this property has been reduced by the Court of Session to £2,000, being less than Twenty-Five years purchase of the free estimated yearly value, after deducting the burdens, and adding the value of the Growing Wood.

The Articles of Roup, and printed copies of the Memorial and Abstract, are in the hands of Mr. John Pringle, Depute-Clerk of Session, Clerk to the Process of Sale. And farther particulars may be learned, by applying to Mr. William Renny, W. S. 16, Royal Circus, Edinburgh, the Common Agent in the Sale, who is in possession of plans of the two properties, and the title-deeds; or to Mr. Robert Haldane, Writer in Stirling.

INTIMATION.

NOTICE is hereby given, in terms of the Act of 4th George the 4th chap. 98, that William Blackhall, Comb-Maker in Edinburgh, has applied to the Sheriff of Stirlingshire to be decerned and confirmed Executor-Creditor to the Deceased JOHN HUTTON, Hair-Dresser in Falkirk, sometime residing in Grahamstore.
