

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The Deceased GEORGE MARTIN, Writer in Tobermory. IN a Process of Cognition and Sale, instituted by the eldest Son of the said George Martin, and by his Tutor at law, against the Younger Brother of the pursuer, and his Tutors, (S. F. De Maria, Clerk,) Lord Cringletie, Ordinary, by interlocutor of 11th July current, allowed the pursuer to prove the necessity and expediency of the Sale of the Heritable Subjects libelled; the value thereof; the amount of the debts due by the deceased, and the amount of the moveable estate of the deceased; and, for that purpose, granted commission and diligence in common form; and appointed the Creditors of the defunct to produce forthwith all their claims, rights, and diligences, with certification.—Of all which intimation is hereby given, in terms of the said interlocutor.

James Arnott, W. S. Pursuer's Agent.
37, Castle Street,
Edinburgh, July 26, 1827.
