JUDICIAL SALE

OF THE

ESTATE OF CAIRNBROCK, IN WIGTONSHIRE.

To be Sold, by Public Roup, within the Parliament or New Session-House at Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 5th of March next, 1828, betwixt the hours of two and four o'clock afternoon, under authority of the Lords of Council and Session, and in presence of the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills,

ALL and WHOLE the LANDS and ESTATE of CAIRNBROCK, lying within the Parish of Kirkcolum, and County of Wigton, consisting of 427 Scotch acres or thereby.

This property is delightfully situated on the west coast of Galloway, distant from the Market and Sea-Port-Town of Stranraer about 8 miles, and from Portpatrick about 7 miles. The roads to both these places are good.—The Steam Packets between Liverpool and Greenock pass within half a mile of the Shore, almost daily, and the London Mail leaves Portpatrick every evening at 9 o'clock.

The soil is of the finest quality, and fit for all kinds of husbandry.—Lime may be obtained from the opposite Coast of Ireland at a trifling expense; and grain can be shipped at the Bay of Dally, within a mile of the property.

The free proven rental of the estate, exclusive of the value of the mansion-house and offices, and of 10 acres of surrounding plantation, amounts to £343 : 16 : 1½. The estate was formerly exposed to Judicial Sale at £8,938 19s. 3d. being 26 years purchase of the above free rental, but the Court have since reduced the upset price to £8,000 sterling, thus affording a return of more than 4 per cent. to a purchaser.

The Dwelling-House on the property consists of 7 Rooms, Kitchen, Closets, &c. and is suited to accommodate a genteel Family.—There is also a large high-walled garden, well stocked with fruit-trees, and in excellent order. The offices attached to the house are unusually commodious, and in the best repair.—There is also plenty of game on the Lands, and the sea-fishing is excellent.

The Lands hold of a subject superior, for payment of a trifling feu-duty.—The public burdens are small, and the tenants are valued, and nearly exhausted. A more desirable small property for the residence of a Gentleman fond of agricultural pursuits, or for an investment of capital, is seldom to be met with.

The articles of roup and title-deeds will be seen at the office of Mr. William Pringle, Depute-Clerk of Session, General Register House, and for farther particulars application may be made to John R. Skinner, W. S. 5, Roxburgh Place, Edinburgh, or to James H. Ross, Town-Clerk of Stranraer.
