OUTSTANDING DEBTS TO BE SOLD.

TO BE SOLD,

By public roup, within John's Coffeehouse in Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 15th of February next, at one o'clock afternoon,

THE WHOLE OUTSTANDING DEBTS due to the Creditors of JOHN LAMOND, wright in Edinburgh.—A list of these debts may be seen, by applying either to Mr William Bruce, (at Mess. Seton, Wallace, and Company's) the Trustee for Mr Lamond's Creditors, or to Nathaniel Grant, wright in Edinburgh.

Not to be repeated.

To the CREDITORS of

PETER FORRESTER, Merchant in Edinburgh, and the different Companies in Edinburgh and Leith wherein he was concerned.

THE Trustee has made up a state of the funds recovered, with the disbursements and debts claimed from the 20th of June to the 20th of December last, which will be seen at his office, No. 4. North Castle Street, Edinburgh, until Tuesday the 21st of February next; on which day, at one o'clock, he requests the attendance of the creditors, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, to give such directions as they may think necessary in the present situation of the affairs. But as the question as to the mode of ranking is still in dependence before the Court of Session, no division can yet be made.

At the same time, there will be submitted to the creditors, certain objections made at last General Meeting to some of the accounts of expence.

To the CREDITORS of

DAVID MORTON, late Grocer in Edinburgh.

THE Creditors of the said David Morton are desired to call at the shop of James Reid, Luckenbooths, the trustee, on Monday the 20th February first, at twelve o'clock, to receive their dividends. Such of them as have neglected to lodge their claims, as required in former advertisements, are again requested to do so before the 31st inst.—and those who do not comply with this request will be cut off from any share of the funds, as it is expected the whole will be divided that day. EDINR. Jan. 23, 1797.

To the CREDITORS of

DANIEL MACNAB AND SON, Rope and Sail Makers in Leith.

A STATE of the debts of the said Daniel Macnab and Son, and of Daniel Macnab as an individual, together with a state of their funds so far as recovered and converted into cash, and also of the funds unrecovered, are made up and shall lie open for the inspection of the creditors or their agents, at the counting-room of Robert Jop, merchant in Leith, the trustee, for the space of one month, from this date, after which the trustee shall commence paying the dividends. JAN. 24, 1797.
