FROM TUESDAY, JANUARY 31. TO FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3. 1797.

DOWNING-STREET, Jan. 30. 1797.

OFFICIAL accounts have this day been received from Mr Robert Craufurd of the surrender of Kehl, on the 10th instant, to the Austrians, after a siege of forty-nine days. It appears, that from the 31st of December to the 7th of January several attacks had been made by the Austrians upon the enemy's principal out-works, in all of which the former were completely successful.

Mr R. Craufurd speaks in the highest terms of the skill and perseverance of his Royal Highness the Archduke Charles, the gallantry and good conduct of Prince Frederick of Orange, and of the patience and cheerfulness with which the troops submitted to the greatest hardships.
