TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1829.

At the Court at Windsor, the 22d day of June 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Wednesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant June, to Thursday the twentieth day of August next.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor, of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, is to cause a Commission to be prepared, in the usual manner, for proroguing the Parliament accordingly.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Wednesday, June 24, 1829.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Majesty, in releasing you from your attendance in Parliament, to express to you His Majesty's acknowledgments for the zeal and assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the despatch of the public business, and especially to the consideration of those important matters which His Majesty recommended to your attention at the opening of the session.

His Majesty directs us to inform you, that He continues to receive from His Allies, and from all Foreign Powers, assurances of their earnest desire to cultivate the relations of peace, and maintain the most friendly understanding with His Majesty.

His Majesty laments that He has not to announce to you the termination of the war on the east of Europe; but His Majesty commands us to assure you, that He will continue to use His utmost endeavours to prevent the extension of hostilities, and to promote the restoration of peace.

It is with satisfaction His Majesty informs you, that He has been enabled to renew His diplomatic relations with the Ottoman Porte.

The Ambassadors of His Majesty and of the King of France are on their return to Constantinople; and the Emperor of Russia having been pleased to authorise the Plenipotentiaries of His Allies to act on behalf of His Imperial Majesty, the negotiation for the final pacification of Greece will be carried on in the name of the three Contracting Parties to the Treaty of London.

The army of His Most Christian Majesty has been withdrawn from the Morea, with the exception of a small force, destined for a time to assist in the establishment of order in a country which has so long been the scene of confusion and anarchy.

It is with increased regret that His Majesty again adverts to the condition of the Portuguese Monarchy; but His Majesty commands us to repeat His determination to use every effort to reconcile conflicting interests, and to remove the evils which press so heavily upon a country, the prosperity of which must ever be an object of His Majesty's solicitude.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty commands us to thank you for the supplies which you have granted for the service of the year, and to assure you of His Majesty's determination to apply them with every attention to economy.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has commanded us, in conclusion, to express the sincere hope of His Majesty, that the important measures which have been adopted by Parliament in the course of the present session may tend, under the blessing of Divine Providence, to establish the tranquillity and improve the condition of Ireland; and that, by strengthening the bonds of union between the several parts of this great empire, they may consolidate and augment its power, and promote the happiness of His people.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said;—

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of His Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in His Majesty's name, and in obedience to His commands, prorogue this Parliament to Thursday the 20th day of August next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the 20th day of August next.

WINDSOR-CASTLE, June 22, 1829.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the following Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Entrée-room, viz.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester, His Royal Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Coburg, the Earl of Westmoreland, the Marquess Camden, the Duke of Rutland, the Earl of Hardwicke, the Duke of Beaufort, the Earl of Lonsdale, the Marquess quess Wellesley, the Duke of Montrose, the Duke of Wellington, the Earl Bathurst, the Marquess of Bath, the Duke of Dorset, the Duke of Leeds, the Marquess of Exeter, and the Duke of Richmond, attended by the under-named Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order; the Lord Bishop of Salisbury, Chancellor of the Order; the Honourable and Reverend the Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order; and Sir George Nayler, Knt. Garter Principal King of Arms.

At four o'clock, the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Chapter-room.

The Sovereign and the Knights Companions being seated, the Chancellor signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that the vacant stall in the Royal Chapel of St. George be filled; and as by the statutes none but a Knight can be elected, the Earl of Ashburnham was introduced and knighted by His Majesty with the sword of state, after which his Lordship, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by his Lordship presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Right Honourable George Earl of Ashburnham had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, the Earl was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Marquess of Exeter and the Duke of Richmond, the two junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to His Majesty, preceded by Garter bearing the Ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion. The Earl kneeling near the Sovereign, and Garter presenting on his knee the Garter His Majesty, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Gloucester, the two senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Lordship's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the Ribband with the George, and His Majesty, with the assistance of the two senior Knights Companions, put the same over the Earl's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition. The Earl having again kissed the Sovereign's hand, and received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, withdrew.

The Chapter being ended, the Knights Companions were again called over by Garter, and with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign with the usual reverences.
