FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1830.

At the Court at Brighton, the 27th day of December 1830.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the eleventh year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to suspend, until the end of the next session of Parliament, the making of lists and the ballots and enrolments of the Militia of the United Kingdom," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that any proceedings shall be had at any time before the expiration of such period as aforesaid, either for the giving of notices and making returns and preparing lists, and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol men for the filling up vacancies in the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, as His Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the issuing of any such Order, all such proceedings shall be had for carrying into execution all the provisions of the Acts in force in England, Scotland, and Ireland, respectively, relating to the giving notices for, and returning of lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of men to supply any vacancies in the militia, and holding general and sub-division meetings for such purpose, at such time respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any directions given in pursuance thereof to the Lord Lieutenants, or Deputy-Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants, of the several counties, shires, ridings, cities, and places in Great Britain, or to the Governors and Deputy-Governors of counties and places in Ireland, or to the Warden and Special Deputy-Wardens of the Stannaries, and all the provisions of the several Acts in force in England, Scotland, and Ireland, respectively, relating to the militia and corps of miners of Cornwall and Devon, shall, upon any such order and direction given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full force, and be carried into execution at the period specified in such order or direction as aforesaid, with all such penalties and forfeitures for any neglect thereof, as fully as if such periods had been fixed in the Acts relating to such militia and miners: And whereas it is deemed expedient that proceedings should now be had for holding general and sub-division meetings, for the giving notices, and making returns and preparing lists, and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol men for filling up vacancies in the militia of Great Britain, it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that within fourteen days in England, and three weeks in Scotland, after the date of this Order, the Lord Lieutenants and Vice-Lieutenants in the several counties, shires, ridings, cities, and places in Great Britain, shall summon, or cause to be summoned, general meetings for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the Acts now in force in England and Scotland respectively, relating to the giving notices for, and return of lists, and for balloting and enrolling men to supply any vacancies in the militia, within the several periods prescribed by the Acts in that behalf, made and provided for the execution of these proceedings respectively, and under all the penalties and forfeitures for the neglect thereof, as are directed by the said Acts respectively.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th of December 1830.

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IT is this day ordered by their Lordships, that every Minister and Preacher, as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion, protected and allowed by an Act passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, chap. 7, intituled "An Act to prevent the disturbing those of the Episcopal Communion in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, in the exercise of their religious worship, and in the use of the Liturgy of the Church of England, and for the repealing the Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland, intituled 'An Act against irregular baptisms and marriages,'" do, at some time during the exercise of the Divine Service in such respective Church, Congregation, or Assembly, put up their Prayers to Almighty God, on account of the troubled state of certain parts of the United Kingdom.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

WHITEHALL, December 22, 1830.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN CARTER, Grocer and Spirit Dealer, High Street, Edinburgh.

UPON the application of the said John Carter, with concurrence of a Creditor to the extent required by law, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, (Court of Session,) upon the 29th day of December 1830, sequestered the whole estate and effects of the said John Carter, and appointed his Creditors to meet at Edinburgh, within Menzies' Regent Coffee-room, Waterloo Place, upon Friday the 7th day of January 1831, at one o'clock afternoon, to name an Interim Factor on the sequestered estate; and also appointed the said Creditors to meet again, at the same place and hour, upon Saturday the 22d day of the said month of January, for the purpose of naming a Trustee,—all in terms of the Statute.

James Taylor, Solicitor.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES SLIGH, General-Merchant, Grocer, and Haberdasher, in Gifford, County of Haddington.

ON the application of the said James Sligh, with concurrence of a Creditor to the extent required by law, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, of this date, sequestered the whole estate and effects, heritable and moveable, real and personal, of the said James Sligh, and appointed his Creditors to meet in McEwan's Coffeehouse, Royal Exchange, Edinburgh, upon Friday the 7th of January next, at two o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of choosing an Interim Factor, and on Friday the 28th of January next, at the same place and hour, to elect a Trustee, in terms of the Statute.

Edinburgh, December 30, 1830.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

DAVID WILSON, Spirit-Dealer in Edinburgh.

JAMES TAYLOR, Merchant in Edinburgh, intimates, that he has been appointed and confirmed Trustee on the sequestered estate of the said David Wilson; and the Sheriff-Substitute of Edinburgh has fixed Thursday the 13th, and Thursday the 27th days of January next, at 11 o'clock forenoon of each day, for the public examination of the Bankrupt, within the Sheriff's office, Edinburgh. The Trustee farther intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors is to be held, within the Ship Tavern, East Register Street, Edinburgh, on Friday the 28th day of January next, at 12 o'clock noon; and another meeting, at the same place and hour, on the 11th day of February next, for electing Commissioners, and other purposes.

The Trustee requests the Creditors to lodge with him their grounds of debt and oaths of verity thereto, betwixt and the said meetings; certifying all who neglect to do so, on or before the 27th September next, being ten months from the date of sequestration, they will be cut off from any share of the first dividend of the said estate.

Edinburgh, December 28, 1830.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES LOW, Merchant in Brechin.

JAMES SPEID, Writer in Brechin, Trustee on the said James Low's sequestered estate, hereby intimates, that his accounts with said estate have been audited and approved of by the Commissioners, and that he has made up a state of the ranking, and scheme of division, which, with the other requisite states, will lie at his office for the inspection of all concerned, until the 4th day of February next, on which day a final dividend will be paid to those Creditors who have proved their debts, and been admitted to rank on the estate, in terms of the Statute.

Brechin, December 31, 1830.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The deceased WILLIAM PETTIGREW, Rope-Maker in Glasgow.

JAMES KERR, Accountant in Glasgow, Executor of the deceased, hereby intimates, that he intends making a division of the funds already realised from the deceased's estate, on 1st March next; and he farther intimates to such Creditors of the deceased as have not lodged their claims, in terms of the former Notice of 13th February last, that if they fail to do so, on or before the 14th day of February next, they will be cut off from all share of the trust-estate, as in the event of there being a residue after paying the debts claimed and charges, he will thereafter apply the same as directed by the deceased's deed of settlement.

Glasgow, December 28, 1830.

Not to be repeated.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES WATSON, Accountant in Glasgow, Trustee on the sequestered estates of the said James Guild and Company, as a Company, and of the said James Guild, as an Individual, hereby intimates, that his accounts have been audited by the Commissioners; and that a state of the Bankrupts' affairs, and a scheme of division of the funds, will lie at his office, No. 114, Trongate, Glasgow, for the inspection of the Creditors, until the 18th day of February next, when a final dividend will be paid by him.

Glasgow, December 27, 1830.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES BOYD, Baker and Grain-Dealer in Glasgow.

THE Trustees of the said James Boyd hereby intimate, that they have made up states of the trust-affairs; which states will lie in the office of Mr. James Watson, Accountant, their Factor, Old Post Office Court, for the inspection of all concerned, until Tuesday the 11th day of January next, on which day he will pay a first dividend to those Creditors who shall have ranked their claims, and acceded to the terms of the trust, on or before the 6th proximo; certifying, that such Creditors as shall not have so ranked by the said 6th proximo, will be cut off from a share of the division. Persons still indebted to the estate are requested to make payment of their accounts to Mr. Watson without delay.

Glasgow, December 27, 1830.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

GEORGE HOGARTH, Newspaper Proprietor, Printer, and Publisher, in Edinburgh, and Writer to the Signet.

JAMES BRIDGES, Writer to the Signet, Trustee on the sequestered estate of the said George Hogarth, hereby intimates, that at a meeting of his Creditors, held of this date, an offer of composition was made on the part of the Bankrupt, which was unanimously entertained by the Creditors present as reasonable; and that a meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Royal Exchange Tavern here, on Monday the 17th day of January next, at two o'clock afternoon, for finally deciding on said offer, with or without amendment.

Edinburgh, December 24, 1830.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ALEXANDER GRANT, Builder and Wright in Leith.

AT a meeting of the Creditors of the said Alexander Grant, held upon the 30th day of December current, the Bankrupt made offer to pay a certain composition upon the debts due by him; which the Creditors present considering just and reasonable, appointed another meeting to be held for the purpose of deciding thereon.

The Trustee therefore intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors of the said Alexander Grant will be held upon Thursday the 20th day of January next, at two o'clock afternoon, within the Exchange Coffeehouse, Leith, for the purpose of deciding on the said offer, with or without amendment.

Leith, December 31, 1830.
