ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, April 1. 1797.

Copy of a letter from the Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated the 29th of March, 1797.

WE beg to transmit, for the information of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the inclosed extract of a letter from Lieutenant Kent, commanding the Dover armed Transport, stating his having captured a Spanish brig, bound with dispatches to Buenos Ayres. We are, &c. A. SERLE. J. SCHANCK. J. MARSH.

Extract of a letter from Lieutenant HENRY KENT, commanding the Dover armed transport, to the Commissioners for the Transport Service, dated at Spithead, March 27. 1797.

AGREEABLE to orders I received from Sir John Jervis, I sailed with the ship under my command from Lisbon on the 9th instant with a fresh breeze from the northward. On Sunday the 13th at noon I discovered a brig, bearing N. N. W. I instantly crowded all the sail I could carry, and having the advantage of squally weather, I gained on her fast. At midnight I got within reach, and after firing a few shot at her, she hove to. I immediately boarded her, took possession, and put Mr Isaac Jarman, master of the Dover, into her as prize master. She proves to be his Catholic Majesty's brig the Magallanes, commanded by Don Jacinto de Vargas Machuca, a very fine copper bottomed vessel, pierced for eighteen guns, (had only four mounted, and navigated by thirty-six men, sails remarkably fast, and is well fitted for her voyage.
