BEAUTIFUL ESTATE IN THE WEST OF FIFE, FOR SALE.

To be Sold, by Public Roup, upon Wednesday the 8th day of June next, at two o'clock afternoon, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh,

THE ESTATE of INZIEVAR, lying in the parish of Torryburn, and county of Fife.

This very desirable Estate consists of 393 imperial acres or thereby, about 360 of which are arable, and capable of bearing every kind of crop, and the remainder is occupied by belts and clumps of wood tastefully interspersed throughout the Estate in the most thriving condition. It lies within six miles of the populous town of Dunfermline, and within a mile of the village of Torryburn, where there is a daily post and a butcher market. The Stirling steam-boat touches daily at Crombie-Point, within two miles of the Estate.

There is a very comfortable mansion-house, with a commodious set of offices, consisting of coach-house, stables, &c.; there is also a garden and well stocked pigeon-house. The mansion-house stands in a park adorned with wood; and as the Estates of Torry and Valleyfield are in the immediate neighbourhood, the surrounding country is extremely beautiful. There are two handsome approaches to the house from the north and west, which were laid out with great taste, and at considerable expense by the late proprietor. Coal and lime are in the neighbourhood, and the public burdens are moderate. There is abundance of game upon the property, and the Fife fox-hounds hunt the country. In short, so desirable a residence is very seldom in the market.

Farther particulars may be learned by application to James Macfarlane, writer in Dunfermline; to Campbell and Mack, W. S. 1, Thistle Street; to Peter Couper, W. S. 15, Union Street, or to William Hunt, W. S. 12, Windsor Street, Edinburgh.

James Edward, gardener in Torryburn, or John Horn at Inzievar, will point out the boundaries.

Edinburgh, April 8, 1831.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN CRAWFORD and COMPANY, Merchants in Port-Glasgow, who carried on business at Lisbon under the Firm of JOSEPH TUCKER CRAWFORD and COMPANY, and at Newfoundland, under the Firm of CRAWFORD & CO., and of the Individual Partners of these Companies.

THE Trustee upon the sequestrated estates of the fore-said Companies, and individual partners, hereby intimates, that, upon the suggestion of several of the Creditors, and by the instructions of the Commissioners upon the said estates, he has made up a state of the funds of that portion of the estate upon which the Creditors of the deceased John Crawford of Broadfield have been found to be preferable,—which state has been approved of and docketed by the Commissioners; and that, upon the 10th day of June next, he will pay, from the proceeds of the heritable estate which belonged to the said deceased John Crawford of Broadfield, an interim dividend to those Creditors of the said deceased John Crawford who have proved their debts against James Crawford as his heir-at-law, agreeably to a scheme of division prepared by the Trustee; which state, and scheme of division, will lie at his counting-house, Queen Street, for the inspection of the Creditors, until the said dividend is payable.

As a large proportion of the debts claimed upon the estate have been objected to by the Trustee, and are now the subject of discussion before the Supreme Court, the present dividend is made without prejudice to these claims, but the dividend will be paid upon every other claim upon the estate to which no objection has already been stated, unless the Trustee is legally interpellated from doing so before the said 10th day of June next.—And of which all concerned are required to take notice.

Queen Street, Glasgow,
