NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES BOYD, Baker and Grain-Dealer in Glasgow.

THE Trustees of the said James Boyd hereby intimate, that they have made up states of the trust-affairs, which states will lie in the office of Mr. James Watson, Accountant, Old Post Office Court, their Factor, until Tuesday the 24th current, on which day he will pay a second dividend from the funds of the estate to those Creditors who have ranked their claims, and acceded to the terms of the trust; certifying, that such Creditors as shall not have so ranked, will be excluded from their share of the division.

BEAUTIFUL ESTATE IN THE WEST OF FIFE, FOR SALE.

To be Sold, by Public Roup, upon Wednesday the 8th day of June next, at two o'clock afternoon, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh,

THE ESTATE of INZIEVAR, lying in the parish of Torryburn, and county of Fife.

This very desirable Estate consists of 393 imperial acres or thereby, about 360 of which are arable, and capable of bearing every kind of crop, and the remainder is occupied by belts and clumps of wood tastefully interspersed throughout the Estate in the most thriving condition. It lies within six miles of the populous town of Dunfermline, and within a mile of the village of Torryburn, where there is a daily post and a butcher market. The Stirling steam-boat touches daily at Crombie-Point, within two miles of the Estate.

There is a very comfortable mansion-house, with a commodious set of offices, consisting of coach-house, stables, &c.; there is also a garden and well stocked pigeon-house. The mansion-house stands in a park adorned with wood; and as the Estates of Torry and Valleyfield are in the immediate neighbourhood, the surrounding country is extremely beautiful. There are two handsome approaches to the house from the north and west, which were laid out with great taste, and at considerable expense by the late proprietor. Coal and lime are in the neighbourhood, and the public burdens are moderate. There is abundance of game upon the property, and the Fife fox-hounds hunt the country. In short, so desirable a residence is very seldom in the market.

Farther particulars may be learned by application to James Macfarlane, writer in Dunfermline; to Campbell and Mack, W. S. 1, Thistle Street; to Peter Couper, W. S. 15, Union Street, or to William Hunt, W. S. 12, Windsor Street, Edinburgh.

James Edward, gardener in Torryburn, or John Horn at Inzievar, will point out the boundaries.

Edinburgh, April 8, 1831.

HOUSE IN GEORGE STREET, EDINBURGH,

AND

SUPERIORITIES IN ARGYLLSHIRE, FOR SALE.

To be Sold by Public Roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 8th day of June next, at two o'clock afternoon.

I. THE pro indiviso half of the Street Flat, No. 6, George Street, Edinburgh, consisting of five rooms and closets, as presently possessed by Mr. Fairbairn, Bookseller, and Mr. Wightman, Bootmaker; also of the sunk flat below Mr. Fairbairn's premises, entering from the front area, consisting of a shop and three apartments, with back ground, cellars, and other conveniences.

From the central situation of the premises, they might be advantageously converted into shops, and are likewise well adapted for writing-chambers. The feu-duty of the whole subjects is only £1 : 10s. per annum.

To facilitate a sale, the proprietor of the other pro indiviso half has agreed to dispose of it on the same terms as the half now advertised may bring at the sale.

II. The Superiority of the Lands of Mulbowie, Ardmensh, Achaleck, and others, in Argyllshire, affording a Freehold Qualification in the County. The feu-duties of these Lands amount to £10 : 7s. per annum, and the entry of singular successors for Achaleck and Mulbowie is not taxed.

For further particulars apply to Charles McDowall, W. S. No. 11, Forth Street.
