DAY OF SALE POSTPONED.

BEAUTIFUL ESTATE IN FIFE,
FOR SALE.

To be Sold, by Public Roup, upon Wednesday the 22d day of June next, at two o'clock afternoon, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh,

THE ESTATE of INZIEVAR, in the Western District of the county of Fife.

This very desirable Estate consists of 393 imperial acres or thereby, about 360 of which are arable, and capable of bearing every kind of crop, and the remainder is occupied by belts and clumps of wood tastefully interspersed throughout the Estate in the most thriving condition. It lies within six miles of the populous town of Dunfermline, and within a mile of the village of Torryburn, where there is a daily post and a butcher market. The Stirling steam-boat touches daily at Crombie-Point, within two miles of the Estate.

There is a very comfortable mansion-house, with a commodious set of offices, consisting of coach-house, stables, &c; there is also a garden and well stocked pigeon-house. The mansion-house stands in a park adorned with wood; and as the Estates of Torry and Valleyfield are in the immediate neighbourhood, the surrounding country is extremely beautiful. There are two handsome approaches to the house from the north and west, which were laid out with great taste, and at considerable expense by the late proprietor. Coal and lime are in the neighbourhood, and the public burdens are moderate. There is abundance of game upon the property, and the Fife fox-hounds hunt the country. In short, so desirable a residence is very seldom in the market.

Farther particulars may be learned by application to James Macfarlane, writer in Dunfermline; to Campbell and Mack, W. S. 1, Thistle Street; to Peter Couper, W. S. 15, Union Street, or to William Hunt, W. S. 12, Windsor Street, Edinburgh.

James Edward, Gardener in Torryburn, or John Horn at Inzievar, will point out the boundaries.

Edinburgh, April 8, 1831.
