*Earl Marshal's-Office, Whitehall-Yard,
July 27, 1831.*

THE King's Most Excellent Majesty having been pleased to command me, as Earl-Marshal of England, forthwith to prepare and countersign letters to be passed under the royal sign manual, requiring the attendance of the Peers and Peeresses of Great Britain at the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty, and of Her Majesty the Queen; and the King having been further pleased to command me to prepare such letters also for those Temporal Peers of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, called Ireland, who sat and voted in the House of Lords of Ireland before the Union, or whose right to sit and vote therein, or to vote at the election of a representative Peer for Ireland has, on claim made on their behalf, been admitted by the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, and who are not now Members of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, I do hereby request that all those Peers, who, in conformity to the above regulations, are entitled to assist at the solemnity of the Royal Coronation of their Majesties, and also the Peeresses and Dowager Peeresses who may claim to attend at the said Coronation, will be pleased to transmit their respective addresses to Sir George Nayler, Garter King of Arms, at this Office, in order that their letters of summons may be forwarded without delay.

NORFOLK, Earl-Marshal.

The Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c. which are to be worn by the Peers at the Coronation of their Most Sacred Majesties, King William the Fourth and Queen Adelaide.

THESE are to give notice to all Peers who attend at the Coronation of their Majesties, that the robe or mantle of the Peers be of crimson velvet, edged with miniver, the cape furred with miniver pure, and powdered with bars or rows of ermine, according to their degree, viz.

- Barons, two rows.
- Viscounts, two rows and a half.
- Earls, three rows.
- Marquesses, three rows and a half.
- Dukes, four rows.

The said mantles or robes to be worn over the full Court dress, uniform, or regimentals usually worn at Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms.

Their Coronets to be of silver gilt; the caps of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with a gold tassel on the top; and no jewels or precious stones are to be set or used in the coronets, or counterfeit pearls instead of silver balls.

The coronet of a Baron to have, on the circle or rim, six silver balls at equal distances.

The coronet of a Viscount to have, on the circle, sixteen silver balls.

The coronet of an Earl to have, on the circle, eight silver balls, raised upon points, with gold strawberry leaves between the points.

The coronet of a Marquess to have, on the circle, four gold strawberry leaves and four silver balls alternately, the latter a little raised on points above the rim.

The coronet of a Duke to have, on the circle, eight gold strawberry leaves.

By His Majesty's command,

(Signed) NORFOLK, Earl-Marshal.

The Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c. which are to be worn by the Peeresses at the Coronation of their Most Sacred Majesties King William the Fourth and Queen Adelaide.

THESE are to give notice to all Peeresses who attend at the Coronation of their Majesties, that the robes or mantles appertaining to their respective ranks are to be worn over the usual full court dress.

That the robe or mantle of a Baroness be of crimson velvet, the cape whereof to be furred with miniver pure, and powdered with two bars or rows of ermine; the said mantle to be edged round with miniver pure, two inches in breadth, and the train to be three feet on the ground; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz.—a rim or circle with six pearls upon the same, not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Viscountess be like that of a Baroness, only the cape powdered, with two rows and a half of ermine, the edging of the mantle two inches as before, and the train a yard and a quarter; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz. a rim or circle with pearls thereon, sixteen in number, and not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Countess be as before, only the cape powdered, with three rows of ermine, the edging three inches in breadth, and the train a yard and a half; the coronet to be composed of eight pearls raised upon points or rays, with small strawberry leaves between, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Marchioness be as before, only the cape powdered, with three rows and a half of ermine, the edging four inches in breadth, the train a yard and three quarters; the coronet to be composed of four strawberry leaves and and four pearls raised upon points of the same height as the leaves alternately, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Duchess be as before, only the cape powdered, with four rows of ermine, the edging five inches broad, the train two yards; the coronet to be composed of eight strawberry leaves, all of equal height, above the rim.

And that the caps of all the said coronets be of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with a tassel of gold on the top.

By His Majesty's command,

(Signed) NORFOLK, Earl-Marshal.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ALEXANDER JACK, General-Agent, Candlemaker, and Merchant in Inverness.

THOMAS ROSS, General-Agent in Inverness, hereby intimates, that he has been elected and confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Alexander Jack: That the Sheriff-Substitute of Inverness-shire has fixed the 18th day of August next, at 11 o'clock forenoon, for the first examination of the Bankrupt, within the Sheriff-clerk's office here, and the 8th day of September next, for the second examination, at the hour and place above-mentioned; and that on the first lawful day immediately succeeding the last of these examinations, being Friday the 9th of September, a meeting of the Creditors is to be held within the writing-chambers of George Cameron, Solicitor in Inverness, at 11 o'clock forenoon, for the purposes mentioned in the Statute. The Trustee farther intimates, that another meeting of the Creditors is to be held, in the same place and at the same hour, on Friday the 23d day of September, for the purpose of examining into the state of the Bankrupt's affairs, giving directions as to the recovery and management of the estate, and electing Commissioners. Such of the Creditors as have not already lodged their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths to the verity thereof, are hereby required to do so at or previous to the said meeting of Creditors first above-mentioned; and the Trustee farther intimates, that unless the said productions are made between and the 16th day of April next, being ten months after the date of the first deliverance on the petition of sequestration, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's estate, under the exceptions provided for in the Statute.

Inverness, July 30, 1831.

THE Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, by interlocutor of this date, sequestrated the whole estate and effects of JAMES BOWIE, Flesher and Glover in Elgin, and appointed his Creditors to hold meetings on Wednesday the 10th and Wednesday the 24th days of August current, in Webster's Inn, Elgin, at 12 o'clock noon of each day, for the purpose of choosing an Interim Factor and Trustee on said sequestrated estate, in terms of the Statute.
