Earl Marshal's-Office, Whitehall-Yard,
July 27, 1831.

THE King's Most Excellent Majesty having been pleased to command me, as Earl-Marshal of England, forthwith to prepare and countersign letters to be passed under the royal sign manual, requiring the attendance of the Peers and Peeresses of Great Britain at the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty, and of Her Majesty the Queen; and the King having been further pleased to command me to prepare such letters also for those Temporal Peers of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, called Ireland, who sat and voted in the House of Lords of Ireland before the Union, or whose right to sit and vote therein, or to vote at the election of a representative Peer for Ireland has, on claim made on their behalf, been admitted by the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, and who are not now Members of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, I do hereby request that all those Peers, who, in conformity to the above regulations, are entitled to assist at the solemnity of the Royal Coronation of their Majesties, and also the Peeresses and Dowager Peeresses who may claim to attend at the said Coronation, will be pleased to transmit their respective addresses to Sir George Nayler, Garter King of Arms, at this Office, in order that their letters of summons may be forwarded without delay.

NORFOLK, Earl-Marshal.

The Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c. which are to be worn by the Peers at the Coronation of their Most Sacred Majesties, King William the Fourth and Queen Adelaide.

THESE are to give notice to all Peers who attend at the Coronation of their Majesties, that the robe or mantle of the Peers be of crimson velvet, edged with miniver, the cape furred with miniver pure, and powdered with bars or rows of ermine, according to their degree, viz.

- Barons, two rows.
- Viscounts, two rows and a half.
- Earls, three rows.
- Marquesses, three rows and a half.
- Dukes, four rows.

The said mantles or robes to be worn over the full Court dress, uniform, or regimentals usually worn at Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms.

Their Coronets to be of silver gilt; the caps of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with a gold tassel on the top; and no jewels or precious stones are to be set or used in the coronets, or counterfeit pearls instead of silver balls.

The coronet of a Baron to have, on the circle or rim, six silver balls at equal distances.

The coronet of a Viscount to have, on the circle, sixteen silver balls.

The coronet of an Earl to have, on the circle, eight silver balls, raised upon points, with gold strawberry leaves between the points.

The coronet of a Marquess to have, on the circle, four gold strawberry leaves and four silver balls alternately, the latter a little raised on points above the rim.

The coronet of a Duke to have, on the circle, eight gold strawberry leaves.

By His Majesty's command,

(Signed) NORFOLK, Earl-Marshal.

The Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c. which are to be worn by the Peeresses at the Coronation of their Most Sacred Majesties King William the Fourth and Queen Adelaide.

THESE are to give notice to all Peeresses who attend at the Coronation of their Majesties, that the robes or mantles appertaining to their respective ranks are to be worn over the usual full court dress.

That the robe or mantle of a Baroness be of crimson velvet, the cape whereof to be furred with miniver pure, and powdered with two bars or rows of ermine; the said mantle to be edged round with miniver pure, two inches in breadth, and the train to be three feet on the ground; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz.—a rim or circle with six pearls upon the same, not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Viscountess be like that of a Baroness, only the cape powdered, with two rows and a half of ermine, the edging of the mantle two inches as before, and the train a yard and a quarter; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz. a rim or circle with pearls thereon, sixteen in number, and not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Countess be as before, only the cape powdered, with three rows of ermine, the edging three inches in breadth, and the train a yard and a half; the coronet to be composed of eight pearls raised upon points or rays, with small strawberry leaves between, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Marchioness be as before, only the cape powdered, with three rows and a half of ermine, the edging four inches in breadth, the train a yard and three quarters; the coronet to be composed of four strawberry leaves and
