FROM TUESDAY, MAY 2, TO FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1797.

DOWNING STREET, May 2, 1797.

A Letter of which the following is an extract, has been received from Colonel Craufurd by the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, dated Franckfort, 19th April, 1797.

I have the honour to inform your Lordship, that General Hoche yesterday, attacked, with very superior numbers, and defeated an Aultrian corps, commanded by General Kray, which formed a part of the army of the Lower Rhine, under the orders of General Werneck, and was stationed at Thurdorf, on the road leading from Neuwied to Hackenburg. In consequence of that circumstance, General Werneck, who was with the principal part of his army near Crobach, between Hackenburg and Altenkirchen, has determined to retreat.

VIENNA, April 15.

Accounts have been received this day of the enemy having been obliged to abandon the town and port of Fiume, with considerable loss, on the 10th instant.

VIENNA, April 16.

Accounts were received here this day, from Major General Baron Laudohn, dated at Trent the 12th inst. stating, that he had driven the enemy from Roveredo, Torbole and Riva, and had occupied those places. On this occasion he took from the enemy several magazines, (amongst which was one of powder) 12 pieces of cannon, and 400 prisoners.

VIENNA, April 17.

The preparations for defence are continuing here with uncommon vigour. An intrenched camp is forming on the Wienerberg, on the Italian road, at a little distance from the lines; and the works are continuing quite round the town. The first division of the troops from the Rhine, accompanied by the Prince of Orange, is already arrived, as is a part of Mons. de Seckendorf's corps.

This morning the numerous corps of Volunteers of the town were assembled on the glacis, and afterwards marched to the circumjacent villages, where they will be stationed. Their regularity and good conduct do them infinite honour, and the happiest spirit of loyalty is manifested by all classes here.
