ELIGIBLE BUILDING GROUND upon the ESTATE of INVERLEITH, near Stockbridge, in the immediate vicinity of Edinburgh, to be FEUED, in virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of George the Third, cap. 27.

There will be exposed to Public Auction, upon Wednesday the 18th of January next, 1832, at one o'clock afternoon, within the Old Signet Hall, Royal Exchange, Edinburgh, in terms of articles of roup to be adjusted and approved of by the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in the Court of Session, these TEN LOTS of GROUND, Part of the Entailed ESTATE of INVERLEITH, fronting the Queensferry Road, leading by Stockbridge. Lot 1st measures about 1 rood 18 poles and 20 yards of ground, and each of the other Lots 1 rood 5 poles 8 yards, or thereby, English measure.

One dwelling-house only is to be built upon each lot; and as all kinds of nuisance are to be prohibited in the charters, these grounds will afford the finest situations for Villas that are to be had so near Edinburgh. Each lot measures 72½ feet of front to the Queensferry Road, and 170 feet backward; and the upset feu-duty will be only two shillings and fourpence per foot of front. The lands are free from all town taxes, the saving upon which will exceed the feu-duty, and each lot will have sufficient ground for a good garden and offices.

The plan and articles of roup may be seen, and other information obtained, by applying to John Kerr and H. G. Dickson, W. S. 6, North-East Circus Place.

Edinburgh, December 16, 1831.
