SALE OF VIEWFIELD.

This very Eligible and Beautiful Property will be exposed to Sale by Public Roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 4th day of April 1832, at two o'clock afternoon.

THE LANDS are situated in the Parish and neighbourhood of Lasswade, and County of Edinburgh. The peculiar beauty of the Country and Scenery around, and the advantages of the situation, are too well known to require any particular description. The Soil is excellent, and capable of carrying every species of crop, extending, by a recent measurement, to nearly 78 imperial acres, besides a Feu adjoining, which yields £14 of yearly feu-duty, exclusive of casualties. The Burdens are moderate.

The MANSION-HOUSE, which is commodious, commands a delightful and extensive view of the fine surrounding Country. There are also a good Garden and Orchard, with substantial Offices.

These Lands are admirably adapted for being divided, or feued out as villas, and, in that view, would afford a most eligible investment for capital.

For farther particulars apply to Messrs. Campbell and Mack, W. S., 1, Thistle Street, Edinburgh, in whose hands are the Title-Deeds and Articles of Roup.
