FRIDAY, MAY 11, 1832.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 4th day of May 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in Scotland, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas by an Order made on the tenth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, should and might apply to the acting chief magistrate of any city, burgh, or town, to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and commissioners of police in all cities, burghs, and towns having local establishments of police, and directing the proceedings to be taken at such meetings :

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council, that difficulties have arisen in the burgh of Paisley, from their being two distinct and separate local establishments of police, the one appointed for the burgh or town corporate of Paisley, and the other for the new town and suburbs of Paisley ; it is therefore ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) that the Board of Health appointed for the town and suburbs of Paisley, shall and may, and it is hereby authorised and empowered to apply to the acting chief magistrate of the said burgh of Paisley to convene a meeting of the burgh magistrates and the two boards of police, the one appointed for the burgh of Paisley, and the other for the new town and suburbs thereof (both which boards of police are hereby authorised and directed to meet and to vote together for the purposes in the said Order mentioned as one body), and to submit proposals, accounts, and estimates to such meeting, and to apply for the necessary powers and authorities, and the funds to defray their reasonable expences on the occasions, and in the manner in the said before-mentioned Order prescribed.

And for all acts and deeds properly done by such Board of Health, chief magistrate of the burgh, burgh magistrates, and two boards of police, in furtherance thereof, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

WHITEHALL, May 5, 1832.

The King has been graciously pleased to order a writ to be issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for summoning Robert Wilson, of Diddlington and of Ashwellthorpe, in the county of Norfolk, Esq. to the House of Peers, by the name, style, and title of Baron Berners, he being eldest coheir of the said Barony, as lineally descended from Jane, daughter, and eventually sole heir of Sir John Bouchier, the last Lord Berners, and which Barony was created by writ of summons in the reign of King Henry the Sixth.
