

he happiness and prosperity of the United Kingdom, and to assure your Majesty, that we reflect with equal astonishment and horror on the late most atrocious and treasonable attack made upon your Majesty's most sacred person, while attending Ascot races.

At the same time, when we consider the very signal preservation of your Majesty, in so critical and alarming a situation, we feel the utmost gratitude and thankfulness for the remarkable interposition of the Divine Providence, so eminently manifested on this occasion, in saving your Majesty from so great and imminent a danger; and do, in the most dutiful and affectionate manner, congratulate your Majesty upon so providential and momentous a deliverance to yourself, to Her Majesty, and to your faithful people.

That Almighty God may long continue to protect and preserve your Majesty's precious and valuable life, as a lasting blessing to the Royal Family and all your faithful subjects, and that your Majesty may long, very long, reign over a people deeply sensible of the many signal advantages and blessings which they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious government, are the ardent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Aberdeen, in Common Council assembled.

Signed in their name and presence, and by their appointment, and the common city seal hereto affixed, at Aberdeen the 29th day of June, 1832 years.
