The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Captain John Marshall, of the Royal Navy, Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Knight Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order.

ST. JAMES'S PALACE, July 11, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King were this day presented to His Majesty at the Levee, and graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the city of Edinburgh, beg leave to approach your royal person with the expression of our most ardent and devoted attachment.

It was with feelings of the utmost horror and indignation that we heard of the late atrocious and treasonable attack upon the sacred person of your Majesty; and while we, therefore, now feel it peculiarly incumbent upon us to come forward with a declaration of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, we cannot but deplore that there should have occurred, during your Majesty's reign, an event so disgraceful in itself, and so repugnant to the feelings of a loyal and affectionate nation.

That your Majesty's life may be long preserved to your faithful subjects, and that the blessing which, through Divine Providence, they enjoy under your Majesty's beneficent sway, may be transmitted to the latest posterity, are the fervent prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at a public general meeting of the Inhabitants of Edinburgh, held in George Street Assembly Rooms this 26th day of June 1832.

John Learmonth,
Lord Provost of the City of Edinburgh.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Edinburgh, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the renewed assurance of our loyalty and devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and government; and to express the deep indignation and abhorrence we feel, in common with all classes of your Majesty's subjects, on having heard of the recent daring and treasonable attempt upon your sacred person.

We unfeignedly rejoice that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, your Majesty has been preserved from danger so imminent, and escaped an attack so flagitious, without injury; and, while we are deeply sensible of the manifold blessings and privileges enjoyed under the mild and paternal government of your Majesty, we lament and deplore that there should be found in the British dominions an individual capable of an outrage so atrocious and disgraceful to human nature.

That it may please Almighty God to bless, protect, and long preserve your Majesty, and to watch over a life so precious to these kingdoms, is the prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's devoted and attached subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the city of Edinburgh.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, and the seal of the city is hereto affixed, at Edinburgh the 25th day of June, 1832 years.

John Learmonth, Lord Provost.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, George William Fox, Lord Kinnaird and Rossie, Most Worshipful Grand Master Mason of Scotland; Henry David Earl of Buchan, Grand Master Elect; Francis Lord Elcho, Past Grand Master; Sir John Hay, of Smithfield and Hayston, Bart. Substitute Grand Master; Sir John Murray Nasmyth, of Posso, Bart. Senior Grand Warden; David Anderson, of St. Germans, Esq. Junior Grand Warden; William Alexander Lawrie, Esq. Grand Secretary; James Bartram, Esq. Grand Clerk; in name and on behalf of the Free and Accepted Masons of the Ancient Order of St. John's Masonry of Scotland, beg leave to express to your Majesty, the illustrious Patron of our ancient order, our unfeigned indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attack made upon your Majesty's sacred person.

We most sincerely congratulate your Majesty, that a kind and beneficent Providence, anticipating the prayers, and watching over the interests of the nation, whose happiness and blessing it is to have been placed under your paternal sway, should have interposed to protect your Majesty from harm on this occasion; and we beg leave to join our voice to that of our fellow-subjects, in renewing the assurances of our most fervent and unalterable attachment to your Majesty, and to your illustrious house; and we humbly implore that the Great Architect of the Universe may continue to watch over and protect your Majesty, and bless you with health and long life, to dispense happiness and peace to your loyal and affectionate subjects.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, in full Grand Lodge assembled, and the Seal of the Grand Lodge appended thereto, at Freemasons' Hall, in the city of Edinburgh, this 29th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1832, and of light 5832.
