WHITEHALL, August 3, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen, beg leave most humbly to approach the Throne, and to present our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's late providential escape from the atrocious attempt upon your Majesty's royal person.

We cannot, in any case behold, without indignation, the passions of ignorant and misguided men stirred up to deeds of violence, under the pretext that they are the victims of real or supposed injuries; and with the utmost detestation must we regard an attack on the life of a Sovereign so justly endeared to his people, by his ardent desire to promote the happiness of his subjects of every rank in the State.

That the Almighty Governor of the Universe may in time to come, as in the days that are past, avert from your Majesty every danger, and enable your Majesty to persevere in the performance of every royal duty, is the fervent prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects.

Aberdeen, Chancellor. Arbuthnot, Rector.
William Jack, Principal.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, Principal and Professors of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, have heard, with the greatest grief and indignation, of the atrocious attack lately made upon your sacred person.

We beg leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we feel the utmost abhorrence of this outrage, and the sincerest joy and thankfulness that your Majesty was preserved from injury. We fervently trust that the Divine Providence, which has watched over your Majesty's safety on this occasion, will continue always to protect, and long to preserve your Majesty, as a blessing to your subjects.

We beg leave sincerely to assure your Majesty, that we shall continue, as far as in our power, to promote the cultivation of sound learning and science, and to instil into the minds of the youth committed to our care, those principles which will lead them to form a correct estimate of the great blessings which we, in common with all our fellow-subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's government.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by

Gordon, Chancellor.
