NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN REID, Grocer and Merchant in Glasgow.

AT a meeting of the Creditors of the said John Reid, held to day, the Bankrupt made offer to pay a composition to the Creditors of Six Shillings per pound, on the debts due by him at the date of the sequestration, together with the whole expences incurred therein, and to find security for payment of said composition and expences to the satisfaction of the Creditors; which offer the meeting entertained as just and reasonable. The Trustee therefore, and as directed by the said meeting, hereby intimates, that another meeting of the said Creditors will be held in the writing-chambers of Messrs. Macdowall and Hotson, Royal Exchange Court, Glasgow, upon Wednesday the 16th day of January next, at one o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of deciding upon the said offer, with or without amendment, in terms of the Statute.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The Company of MARCH & COMPANY, Merchants and Calenderers in Glasgow, and of George Lewis March and Malcom Hunter, the Individual Partners thereof.

WALTER HOWATSON, Wright in Glasgow, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said Company and individual partners, hereby intimates, that at a meeting of the Creditors held here on the 20th instant, an offer of composition made by the Bankrupts was entertained, and that another meeting of the Creditors will be held within the office of Mr. John Grant, Writer, No. 17, Brunswick Place, Glasgow, on Tuesday the 15th January next, at two o'clock afternoon, finally to decide on said offer, with or without amendment, in terms of the Statute.

NOTICE.

ON 2d January 1826, Mr. WILLIAM SANDEMAN, Merchant in Dundee, and Bleacher at Douglas-field, executed a trust-disposition and assignation, whereby he conveyed his whole estate, heritable and moveable, to Trustees, of whom Alexander Balfour, James Brown, David Martin, and William Hackney, all Merchants in Dundee, were the only acceptors, for behoof of all his Creditors, to whom he had become indebted at and preceding that date. Notice of this trust was given in the Gazette and in the local Newspapers, and two several dividends were declared and paid.

On 12th March 1828, (while the voluntary trust was still existing), Mr. Sandeman's estate was sequestrated under the Act 54. Geo. III, cap. 137: and afterwards an offer of composition having been made under the sequestration, subject to a declaration, that with certain exceptions specified in the offer, the whole estate and effects, heritable and moveable, of which he was possessed at the date of the said voluntary trust, and which were conveyed to the said Trustees under the said deed, and remained vested in them, undisposed of, should be reserved for behoof of all his, just and lawful Creditors interested in the foresaid trust, according to their respective rights and preferences; the offer under this reservation was accepted, and was afterwards, viz. on 4th February 1829, approved of by the Court, and a discharge granted. Since that date Mr. Sandeman has (as appears to the said Trustees from the writings shewn to them) satisfied every Creditor for his interest in the said trust-subjects, heritable and moveable, and has himself acquired right to their respective claims, and so is entitled to have the whole trust-estate and effects reconveyed to him, as the only person having right thereto, or interested therein.

The said Trustees, therefore, hereby give notice, that it is their intention to denude of the whole trust-estate and effects to and in favour of the said William Sandeman himself, for his own behoof, unless interpellated: and they require any person having, or pretending to have any claim or interest under the said trust, not already discharged or transferred to Mr. Sandeman, to lodge a written statement of the claim, with an oath of verity, and the voucher, in the hands of the said James Brown, within one month from this date; certifying to all concerned, that on the expiration of that period, the deeds in favour of Mr. Sandeman, for re-investing him in his trust-property, will be immediately executed, without farther notice or delay.

By order of the Trustees,

(Signed) C. & J. KERR, Agents.

Dundee, December 25, 1832.
