Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, January 23, 1833.

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have constituted and appointed Joseph Phillimore, Esq. Doctor of Laws; William Empson, Esq.; and Andrew Martin, Esq. to be Commissioners of French Claims.

At the Court at St. James's, the 3d day of April 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

WHITEHALL, April 3, 1833.
